As matters stand -
A vote for the so-called National Liberal and Conservative Party is a vote in favour of autocratic government; a vote for the so-called Progressive Party is a vote in favour of government by class; a vote for the Liberal Party is a vote in favour of a return to government of the people, by the people, for the people, irrespective of any parties or special favour.

(2) Whether we are to have a return to representative and responsible government, in the fullest meaning of the word, with a due recognition of the character of the House of Commons as a deliberative assembly and of the supremacy of Parliament in all that pertains to our domestic, inter-Imperial, and international affairs.

(1) Whether the affairs of our country are to continue to be administered by an autocratic executive, indifferent alike to the will of the people and the rights of Parliament, as the Dominion administration has been ever since its usurpation of power nearly a year and a half ago; or

The political campaign now drawing to a close has demonstrated clearly that, in the exercise of your
