Ottawa, November 23, 1910.

Reverend Sir,-

In reply to your letter of the 11th instant, I have to say that Constable Ellis has, it is thought, no cause for feeling that has a grievance against Agent Baxter in the matter of the fine imposed in the liquor case referred to by you. The Agent was in doubt as to whom the moiety of the fine should be paid, and, previous to the date of your letter, quite properly referred the matter to the Department for its decision. He is being informed that, in the opinion of the Department, the moiety of the fine should be paid to Constable Ellis.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy & Secretary.

Rev. A. J. C. Ryan,
Andover, Victoria County,
New Brunswick.
