

May 23rd. 1916.

Dear Col. Thompson,

I have an inquiry from the Department of Militia and Defence with reference to the disposition of the separation allowance in the case of Ed. Barnes. Barnes is represented as an Indian, but they have no information as to the band to which he belongs. I wish you would be kind enough to have this matter looked up and advise me to what band or reserve this Indian belongs, so that I may communicate with the Agent.

Yours sincerely,

J. H. ...
Acting Deputy Superintendent General.

Lt. Col. A. F. Thompson,

Officer Commanding

116th. Overseas Battalion.
