

I can give my whole heart to him. Wife, with its history and feeling all too soon make me baby just a lovely memory to me to be hidden in a corner of my heart, and I feel now that I want a few days to myself to devote to him. I am sorry the baby has been a terrible how to us both, but I feel that life has been made richer and better in very many ways by having had him. I can't either of us be the same again and I wonder how to go back. So many things now seem petty and unimportant that used to seem important. It is amazing that a little baby could bring so much. I know that I could never see Death now.

holding him now in their arms and bring me until I keep to join them. I love the whole lot, that all of the other little children who have preceded me, probably greeted him with love and offered flowers to him. I just feel as though painting, portraiture them. It is a very comforting talk, I think. This has been rather a hard day for John and me. In the way, though, I am glad to be back in our own home alone with our thoughts and memories of you. I have felt in the old days weeks, as if I were running away from him and where so glad to be back where

● King, Rt. Hon. William Lyon Mackenzie (MG
26 J 7 volume 13) Mr. and Mrs. (Janet Lindsey - Jennie) Harry Morrison Lay and
● family January-June 1940

National Archives of Canada
Archives nationales du Canada