

heart could desire—a dear uncle, and home, and friends—and even a big farm home in the country, to plan and to look after, where boys such as they are can get a good start in life. There will never be any Bible story to equal that of “Jack-ears” to me.’

THE END.