time of devoted service and the great power he had been in our mission. Reference was also made to the news just received of the death of Dr. E. G. Smith, and the Cor. Sec. was instructed to write to Mrs. Smith expressing the loving sympathy of the members with her in her deep sorrow. He was one of the six to go out thirty-four years ago and the founder of the medical work in India. Reports from Conference in India and from other sources reveal the sad lack of men. Who will fill the gaps?

After earnest prayer the meeting on motion adjourned.

SEMI-ANNUAL DAY OF PRAYER

The Women's Circles are reminded that the day of prayer for Missions will be observed on Thursday, Nov. 3rd. How needful at the beginning of another winter's work for the Master that the Circles plan to meet for earnest prayer. For this will I be enquired of saith the Lord." God grant that an unusually large number of the women of our Circles may meet and fervently pray for our Missions at home and abroad.

CONVENTION, 1927

•McPhail Memorial Church, Ottawa, will be the meeting place for the Convention of 1927. The opening meeting will be on Tuesday evening, Oct. 11th. This meeting will be in the interests of the Young Women and Mrs. G. Blackadar will report on the year's work and Miss Susie Hinman will address the meeting on her tour in Palestine.

Wednesday will be devoted to Home Missions and Thursday will be Foreign Mission Day.

The splendid programme was announced in the September issue of the Link to which our readers are referred. The evening meeting will bring the opportunity to bid farewell to our veteran missionaries, Miss Murray and Miss Priest, as they return to their loved fields of labor.
