GRADUATION AT ST. JOSEPH'S.

London Free Press Nov. 5.

London Free Press, Nov. 5.

Yesterday afternoon the members of the graduating class as S. Joseph's Hospital were presented with their medais and diplomas. There was a large attendance of the filends of the graduates and of the general public. His Lordship, Bishop McEvay, presided, and amongst others present were: R. v., Father O'Bryan, S. J.; Rev. Father McKeon, St. Cathedrai; R. v. Dr. Diniels Colborne street Mcthods's Church: Senator Colby, Dr. John Dr. Wilson, Dr. Thompson, Dr. Thimann and Drs. McMilian and Anderson, house surgeons. The ceremony took place in the nurses home in a large apartiment, which was artistically decorated for the occasion with festions of drapery in white and gold garlands of vergeons, and palms and other choic was the presentation of riplomas to dravers was the presentation of riplomas to dravers was the presentation of riplomas and other choic was the presentation of riplomas and was May Osborne. Sarnia, and Mess May Osborne. Southern, Sarnia, and Mess May Osborne. Cleveland, Onio. The diplomas were banded to the graduates by Father Egan. The junior nurses then presented flowers to each of the graduates. Who were literally covered by these fragrant tokens of esteem from their all the standards of the other members of the class bade farewell to the institution with which they had had so many pleasant associations for three years. Miss Hurley, in the course of the address, and that during the years they had been taught to live not only for themselves but for others. The counsel and example of their teachers, the good Sisters, would ever be remember that no part of their work, however, we have a conscientious, professional women, and to remember duty faithfully. In the performance of their future work, they hoped to prove themselves conscientious, professional women, and to remember that no part of their work, however, small, was too trifling for them tope form, and to do it in the same spirit as He Who came on earth to minister to others. It was said by some that there was a certain the other side. He hoped that the future life of the graduates would be pleasant, and wished them every success.

Bishop McEvay, in addressing the class, congratulated the young ladies on the completion of their course. If they followed half the advice they had received, they would indeed be model nursee. It was often said that woman was supplianting man in many waiks of life, but Even the most crusty old bachelor or the most confirmed woman-hater would admit that woman is in her true sphere in following the profession of nursing. Nursing implied bravery and gentleness or, as it was said, the joining of a man's heart to a woman's thought. The model nurse was scarce, but still there were a good many of them in the world. They must be valiant, gentle and charitable. Tillustrate these points, the Bishop said that an artist once wanted to paint him a picture of the Biessed Virgin at the foot of the cross. The Bishop, however, would not have the Mother of God represented in this manner. It was said in scripture that she stood by the foot of the cross. The Bishop she do not she should be successed to the said that the subhysterical, faining kind, but was a model nurse, who had nursed the greatest patient, ever known it man.

Continuing, His Lordship said that the public not only sometimes expected twenty-four hours per day cut of a nurse's time, but so much was crowded into that time, that twenty-gix hours was more like it. It had been insinuated that the average nurse only lived fifteen years after she had graduated, but some of them entered married life long before that time. A sensible man would pass over a butterfly or a dell in a glass case; he wanted a woman in the true sense of the word. Nursing was not a world of novel-reading and frivelity, it was not all music and fl wers, as on the present happy occasion. It was refreshing, therefore to meet a band of young ladies who were devoting themselves to such a strenuous life. The hospital, it should also be remembered, was not built for doctors, nurses or Sisters, but for the suffering amongst God's creatures. In conclusion, the Bishop said in regard to St. Joseph's that there was not an hospital in the land where there were better doctors, more devoted Sisters or mere loyal nurses.

DEATH OF CANON McCARTHY.

One of the best known priests in the Ottawa Valley passed away last week after a lingering libress, in the person of Rev. Canon McCarthy, the beloved pastor of St. Bridget's Church. Ottawa. He contracted a cold in the spring of this year which developed into lung and throat trouble and necessitated his giving up the du ies of parish priest for a time. He spring of this year which developed into lung and throat trouble and necessitated his giving up the du ies of parish priest for a time. He spent the best part of the summer at Farrelton and other places on the Gatineau in the hope that the change of air would be beneficial. He improved but slowly, however, and returned to the city. He was advised to take a trip to the south, but feeling that he had not long to live, desired to remain at home. A few days ago a specialist from MeGill University was called into consultation but he was unable to hold onto any hopes for his recovery. The news of Rev. Canon McCarthy's death was received with widespread regret: for he was loved and esteemed for his piety, his devotion to the spiritual and temporal welfare of his parishioners, and his genial and kindly disposition. Protestants as well as Catholice had come to reverence the good priest, who, while working earnestly in the cause of the Catholic religion, knew how to respect their honest convictions. The Reverend Father was an advocate of temperance and worked quietly but effectively in the cause of the Catholic religion, knew how to severe the spiritual and and when quite young came to Canada with his parents, who settled in the district of Pembroks. Having at an early age evined the desire to join the priesthood, he entered Ottawa University, where he made his theological studies and was ordained a priest on June 17th. 1877, by Archbishop Dubamil then Bishop of Otawa. FATHER FALLON BECOMES PRO-VINCIAL.

The Rev. M. F. Fallon, D. D. rector of Holy Angels' Church. Porter Avenue, and one of the most eteemed pries a of the Diocese of Buffalo has been appointed to the important offile of provincial of the Order of Oblate Fathers for the province of the United States. Dr. Fallon received the official information concerning his appointments this important offile y esterday from the superior general of the Order of Mary Immedia e, the Rev. Father Augier, now located in Beigium. Particularly interesting to Buffalo Catholics in this connection is the fact that with Dr. Fallon's becoming the Frovincial of the Oblate Fathers he is not to leave Buffalo but inscreed the Frevincial House of the Order is, by the Lowell. Market of Buffalo and hereafter the sum of the Order is, by the Lowell. As the sum of Dr. Fallon some time is used the Frevincial House of the Order is, by the United States will be directed by Dr. Fallon from Buffalo of the Great of the Order in the United States will be directed by Dr. Fallon some time since that he made an urgent eppeal to be primitted to remain in Buffalo in charge of Holy Angels' Church and to have the povincial house transferred here. That his appeal has been granted is gratifying alleke to the parish ioners of Holy Angels' Church and to have the povincial house transferred here. That his appeal has been granted is gratifying alleke to the parish ioners of Holy Angels' Church and to the Catholics of Buffalo who have come to know and eateem Dr. Fallon.

The honor conferred upon Dr. Fallon is the greater when it is known that he is but thirty-seven years old and is the youngest pries; who has ever been chosen as Provincial House of the Oblate Order from Lowell to Buffalo, it is most fitting, because of the Fathers in the Cunited States. The average of the Collate Fathers in the Scates of the Oblate Order from Lowell to Buffalo, it is most fitting, because of the Father and the substitute of the Oblate Order from Lowell to Buffalo, it is most fitting, and they have been substituted by the O
