Every day we are building brick by brick, a house for the soul to live in,
and as you see that the bricks in a building last over each other, so do all our actions, thoughts, and feelings;
so that all of them make a whole.

"Did you know we were builders?" said Jimmy Atkins to John Brown, as he watched them put brick upon brick on the wall of a building.
"No, we're not; we're only boys,"
said John.

"But we are; we are building a house which is to last for ever and ever," said Jimmy.
"Our souls would live forever, and we were building houses to live in."

"But mother told me," said Jimmy,
"that in the world lasts forever,"

"No, we're not; we're only boys,"
said John.
