AN EASTER SERMON

By PHILLIPS BROOKS, D.D.
20c., postpaid.

This fine sermon of Bishop Phillips Brooks on the Resurrection of Jesus is one of his noblest and most triumphant utterances, full of lofty courage and warm human sympathy. Such a word as he here so surely proclaims will come as a great source of strength and assurance to a soul expecting death, and be also a thorough stimulus to the healthy life of others who at the present seem far from the gates we call "death."
