PERCHERONS

The only exhibitors of Percherons at this show were Vanstone & Rogers. North Battleford, Sask. F. E. C. Shore, Alexander, Man. and D. McCullum, Forrest, Man. Vanstone & Rogers were first and third in the aged stallion class with "Anida" and "Blanchard," both good thick horses. McCullum was second with "Hatton." Shore was first in three-year-olds, with "Napier," a horse of fair breeding and a former prize winner. He has developed into a well topped horse. Vanstone & Rogers won the championship on "Anida" with Shore's "Napier" reserve. McCullum had the only mare of this breed on the grounds. She took all the money in the classes entitled to her. Dean Curtis, of Ames College, Iowa, placed the awards.

BELGIANS

Gos Rupp, Lamplugh, Sask., Vanstone & Rogers, North Battleford, and A. McLean, Waldie, Balcarres, Sask., were the only exhibitors of Belgians. Vanstone & Rogers were first in the aged stallion class with "Lucky D." Waldie was second with "Turban." Vanstone & Rogers won both the three and the two year-old classes, with Rupp second in the last named class. Rupp had forwarded a capital string of females, and won in all the classes. It was unfortunate there was no other exhibits of this good breed, as all the horses shown were well worth strong competition.

The championships in the male classes went to Vanstone & Rogers, and in the female to Rupp. Dean Curtis placed the awards.

SHIRES

John Stott, Scarth, Man. He had an entry in both stallion and mare classes. J. W. Foster & Sons, of Nately, Sask., were entered with 22 head, but they had shipped home from Saskatchewan.

THE SHORTHORNS

Competition at Brandon lay between the herds of John Barron, Carberry; J. J. Elliott, Guelph, Ont.; Jas. Bousfield & Sons, MacGregor, Man.; R. A. Wright, Drinkwater, Sask.; and a single entry by George Allison, Burnbank, Man. The principal competition lay between the Barron and Elliott herds. The animals from the Drinkwater herd while very good, are not in the same show shape as those of other two herds, while the big majority of the MacGregor herd were fresh off the grass. Joseph Barnett, of Regina, placed the awards which are as follows:

Aged bulls.—1. Elliott, "Newton Loyalist"; 2. Barron, "Augusta Star"; 3. Allison, "Fancy Lord"; 4. Wright, "Nonpareil Thistle"; 5. Bousfield, "General French." Allison showed a good bull in fourth place here. He is perhaps a little high off the ground, but he has a good head and horn and is fairly well covered.

Senior yearlings.—1. Barron, "Jubilee Star"; Junior yearlings.—1. Elliott, "Challenger"; 2. Barron, "Morning Star"; 3. Wright, "Clarence"; 4 and 5. Bousfield, "Flashwood" and "Royal Girl."
