(From Our Own Correspondent) MISERABLE FROM FUSE INDURY Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Wood and Felt Wretched Until He Started

> 591 CHAMPLAIN, ST., MONTHEAL. "For two years, I was a miserable afferer from Rheumatism and Stomach Trouble. I had frequent Dizzy Spells, and when I took food, felt wretched and sleepy. I suffered from Rheumatism dreadfully, with pains in my back and joints, and my hands swollen. A friend advised "Fruit-a-tives" and from the outset, they did me good. After the first box, I felt I was getting well and I can truthfully say that 'Fruit-a-tives" is the only medicine that helped me". LOUIS LABRIE. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. Mr. Chesney has received the news from a letter from her son in the Southern States, that a town called Girard in the State of Alabama was raided by the high officials of that state, and they found hearly half a million dollars worth of whiskey and brandy hidden. A lot was found hidden in a field and corn planted on the top of it. Eighty casks were found in the river, weighted down and tied tight, and large quantities were found in houses. Three companies of soldiers are guarding the whiskey. No one has been faurt yet, but they expect a hard time when they pour the whiskey in the sewer. The town is tunder martial law and everybody.

General Hughes Charges Documents Were Stolen From His N.Y. Office.

CARVELL AND MARKEY NAMED

The Commissioners Enquire of Mr. Johnston Where He Got Evidence.

Ottawa, June 1.—The fuse enquiry has now passed its peak. The cross-examination of Sir Sam Hughes was finished vesterday afternoon by Mr. E. F. B. Johnston, after Mr. Hellmuth had brought his direct examination to a close early in the morning session; and after Mr. A. F. Riddell, financial supervisor of the Shell Committee. had been briefly examined, Mr. T. A. Russell was placed on the stand and remained there during the rest of the day. With the failure of the Opposition counsel on cross-examination to shake General Hughes' testimony on any essential point yesterday, it was made clear that the so-called Kyte charges have fallen flat in so far as they affect the Minister of Militia. Despite a skilful series of questions indicate that there had been any and other contracts which are being
