OFF FOR A REST.

Mrs. Edna C. Harper, M.A., of the Normal College Faculty has got a bit used up by unusually heavy work—the serious and quite prolonged illness of her son from influenza and her professional duties at the College have impaired her accustomed good health, and a rest has been ordered.
The Council of Public Institution has consented to this and has very generously given Mrs. Harper a leave of absence from professional duties for the rest of this College term.
Her hosts of friends hope that this little rest will restore her to wanted good health and that she will return to her position on the Normal College Faculty, that she so efficiently fills with credit to herself and to this Provincial Institution.

SUFFOCATED IN THEIR SLEEP.
Mrs. Charles Wood, whose husband is overseas, left her three children asleep in the home at Musquodoboit Harbor, while she went over to a neighbor's for a short time. When she returned the house was filled with smoke from wood placed in the oven of a stove to dry. The youngest child, 14 months old, was dead; and two others 4 and 7 1-2 years, died two days later.

THE LATE MRS. ROBERT PUTNAM.
The death of Jessie Harvey, widow of the late Robert Putnam, occurred at her home Middle Steviacke, Jan. 18th at the age of sixty five years.
Mrs. Putnam was stricken with paralysis over two years ago, and since then was confined to her bed. She leaves to mourn three sons and three daughters—Jennie of Worcester Mass. who arrived home a few hours before her mother's death; Ernest of Brookfield; Robie of Middle Steviacke; Lena, (Mrs. Senfesty), of Tampa, Florida, and Erle, and Henrietta, at home. Her husband predeceased her about three years.
One sister, Mrs. George Harvey, of Newport, and three brothers, D.S. Harvey, of Medicine Hat; Dr. McLeod Harvey, of Washington and Dr. F. J. Harvey of Wolfville, also survive.

THE R. B. LOVELY EXAMINATION.
With reference to the examination before Stipendiary Crowe of R. B. Lovely for shooting Harry Blair, the evidence did not bring out the current statement that Lovely had not supported his wife and that he was ever "beating her up" but rather the contrary that she had received support from him.
Lovely and his wife were married since his return from the War, and latterly she was refused to live with him.

"SCOTCH LASSIES" WIN FIRST PRIZE AT STEVIACKÉ CARNIVAL.

About thirty young people from Truro attended the Carnival at Steviacke, last Friday evening, February 7th.
The winners of the first prize were "Scotch Lassies"—Mrs. William Bonnell, Walker Street, and Mrs. Donald Tedford, Havelock Street.
These "lassies" were dressed as Highlanders and certainly looked fine, and were much admired in their "Kilties".
Mrs. Wesley Campbell, Doyle Street, as "Pierrot" also won a prize.

HE SULLI HIS OWN HOUSE WITH HIS OWN HANDS.
And the Help He Got From Dodd's Kidney Pills.
Mr. Neill C. MacCallum of Brackley Point, P. E. I., Tells a Story of Interest to All Sufferers From Kidney Pains.

Brackley Point, Queen's County, P.E.I. Feby 10th (Special)—Mr. Neill C. MacCallum, an old resident of this popular little summer resort, never tires of showing visitors over his beautiful home, which is the work of his own hands. And he always finishes with the declaration: "I never could have done this but for the benefit I received from Dodd's Kidney Pills."
"I was brought up on a farm," Mr. MacCallum continues, "but about ten years ago I took a very sore back. I tried plasters and pills without getting any real benefit.
"Then I thought I would try Dodd's Kidney Pills. Two boxes of them made me all right again. A year later I felt it coming on again, but another box of Dodd's Kidney Pills drove it away. Now I just take one or two boxes as a spring medicine, and you can see how healthy I am. I built this house from basement to chimney myself."
Dodd's Kidney Pills are purely a kidney remedy.

HOME COMING OF NURSE WELLS, OLD BARN.
An agreeable surprise was given to the family of Mrs. Stuart, Old Barns, when her daughter made a sudden appearance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Yuill's, Old Barns, where Mrs. Stuart resides with her daughter.
The family had been hoping since the end of the war that she would soon return home, especially as she had been so long both in England and France.
She arrived suddenly and unexpectedly, and her coming was a great joy to the family.
The night following her return (Jan. 30th) a large number of friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Yuill, to welcome sister Wells.
A delightful evening was spent. Nurse Wells has brought a large assortment of souvenirs from the battlefields of France which made quite an interesting exhibition and were eagerly inspected by all present. Among other interesting things were some autograph albums, in which a large number of wounded soldiers had written some very kind things about "Sister Wells" both in prose and verse, expressing gratitude and appreciation for her care and attention.
If all the good wishes expressed are realized Nurse Wells will have a very happy and blessed life.
These wounded soldiers were from England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales, Canada, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa.
Sister Wells has served the whole Empire and her name will be remembered in gratitude in all these lands. She has certainly done her bit and it surely is worth while to have won the gratitude of so many of our wounded boys.
During the evening an excellent luncheon was served by the ladies of the community. After the singing of several patriotic songs, led by Mrs. George Black, the meeting was called to order and the Rev. J. C. Davies delivered an address of welcome, in which he sang the praises of the Nursing Fraternity, their devotion and heroism and extended to the returned sister a hearty welcome in the name of the whole community and congratulating her mother on her safe return.
At the close of the address, all present stood and saluted Nurse Wells as one who was worthy of honor, as "one of the angels of the battlefields". Nurse Wells replied in a very happy speech feeling that it had been a great privilege to her to have been of service to the noble boys.
The Company was honored by the presence of Lieut. Campbell, Stellerton, who was on a visit in Old Barns and who felt it a privilege of addressing the company.
Another returned hero, Pte. Fred Gillard followed with his congratulations with interesting remarks on his experiences in South Africa and France.
The very pleasant evening was closed with singing the National Anthem; a prayer was offered by Rev. J. C. Davies.

THE LATE MRS. J. W. McLELLAN FIVE ISLANDS, N. S.
On Monday morning, Jan. 20 at her home in Five Islands Mrs. J. W. McLellan passed peacefully away, after an illness of seven weeks.
She leaves to mourn the loss of a loving and devoted wife and mother, her husband; one son, Hilbert at home, and one daughter, Mrs. Silas Simpson, Roxbury, Mass., who, with her husband came home a few days previous to her mother's demise.
There are also four sisters Mrs. O. G. Doyle and Mrs. Geo. McLellan, of Five Islands; Mrs. Margaret Aylward of Boston, Mass; and Mrs. W. MacAloney of Parrsboro; also four brothers, Robert and Edward of Five Islands, John of Boston and Samuel of Urbana Hants. Co.
She leaves a large circle of friends by whom she will be greatly missed.
Mrs. McLellan, tho failing in health for nine years, was always cheerful and uncomplaining; always ready to do a kind act; and in her home the soul of hospitality. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian church of Five Islands.
The funeral was held from her late home on Wednesday, Jan. 22. Rev. Mr. Murray conducted the service preaching a very impressive sermon from the words; "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth yea saith the Spirit that they may rest from their labors and their works do follow them."
The floral tributes from husband and family were very beautiful.
