COUNTY COUNCIL.

Some $400 or $500 Damage Done to Moravian Bridge.

Council Advised to Fight in the Chatham Township Dispute-Another Muddled Act.

The only absenters when the county council yesterday afternoon opened its special session were B. W. Willson, of Ridgetown, and J. N. McCoy, of Chat ham township. Mr. Willson had fail ed to receive his notice of meeting and Mr. McCoy was taken suddenly ill after arriving in the city and did not put in appearance until the session was well dvanced. Warden Davidson explained his rea sons for calling together the council The immediate cause was the accid dent to Moravian bridge, but there were other matters. On the 19th of last month a motion had been entered to compel the council to grant an ar bitration and each commissioner had doubtless been served with his notice. Then the Fancher creek bridge had been completed but was reported to be not in accordance with the specifica-

The clerk read a communication from the Hamilton Bridge Cor stating that they had decided to postpone further work on the Moravian bridge until it was safe to go on. Also, a communica-tion from the Hunter Bridge acd Boiler Co. asking all moneys to be paid to the Merchants' Bank.

On motion of Mesers. Hickey and Campbell the Faucher creek bridge matter was left with road and bridge committee.

The county solicitor was asked to address the council on the school matter. He said on learning that the write had been issued J. B. Rankin, Q. C., counsel for the defendant school section, had come in to do the very thing he had promised to do, viz., fight the case and hold the council harmless. The statute was not clear on the matter and while the county solicitor advised the granting of an arbitration, he might be wrong. He advised the council to accept Mr. Rankin's offer and achere to their present position.

Engineer McGeorge was heard in reference to the Moravian bridge accideat. He said the loss to the com-pany would be about $400 or $500, while the only loss to the council from the old bridge.

The council after hearing these gentlemen adjourned till morning. On resuming this morning Warden Davidson said that Dr. J. L. Bray had called his attention to the fact that the ifficial year of his engagement did not terminate until March 15. The council decided that the new appointment took force on Feb. let. Mr. Rankin intimated that he would at the June sessions move a grant of $25 to Dr. Baker, who had, in his estimation been underpaid.

After consultation with the county Scheiter, con motion of Messrs. Campbell and Sturgis it was decided to officially notify the contractors that the council must forfeit their dethe council must forfeit their deposit of $150, owing to the carrying away of the old Moravian bridge.

In the matter of the school section appeal for arbitration it was decided on motion of Messrs. Campbell and Robinson to take no action and allow hep suit to proceed, the watching if the county's interests being left in the hands of the Warden. The Council adjourned at one o'clock this afternoon. BLENHEIM

Maritime Anglican Magazine so Describes Mr Wilson, Q C.

An Excellent Portrait and Compli mentary Description of the Weil-known Barrister.

Church Work, a monthly magazin devoted to the interests of the Church of England in Canada and published at Halifax, N. S., has an excellent portrait of Matthew Wilson, Q C., together with the following sketch?-

Mr. Wilson, who is of Irish descent, was born about forty five years ago in the Province of Outario. In his chosen profession of the law he has been pre-eminently successful and he holds the position of President of the West een Bar Association. As a writer and speaker he stands in the very front rank of Ontario publicists. A strong Conservative in politice he has been frequently solicited to offer bimself for Parliamentary honors, but so far has preferred to devote his uncommon powers to church affairs. He is a nember or the Diocesar, Provincial and General Synods, and in conjunction with Archbishop McChray, and Dean Carmichael, acted as a depution from the Canadian Church to the Americ n General Convention. Mr. Wilson is a strong advocate of feligious education, and is in no sense a jarty man. He is also a member of the Executive Committee of the Diorese of Huror, of the Council of Huron Divinity College. London, Ontario, and is a Senator of the Western University in the same city. As a ready and graceful speaker, and a keen debater, he has few equals in any of our ecclesiastical assemblies, would be in delay and some material and it may be added in any sphere or department of public life.

CONCERT AT COATSWORTH.

The Patriotic Club of Coatsworth gave a grand concert in the Methodist church on Tuesday night. The building was packed to the doors and the proceeds of the concert far exceeded any expectations of the promoters, some $50 being realized. The L. E. and D.R.R. showed their appreciation of the loyalty of the Coatsworthians by issuing passes to all the talent from a distance who took part. This act of courtesy on the part of the railway added considerably to the proceeds of the concert.

Percy Gahan occurred the chair and made a splendid patriotic address telling a number of good stories and outlined the situation in South Africa.

E. J. MacIntyre, the popular singer of this city, was present and added greatly to the success of the evening. Miss Mae Farquharson recited the Absent-minded Beggar in a most entertaining and pleasing manner.

Dr. Oliver, of Merlin, rendered sev eral patriotic songs with his accustom-ed grace and skill.

Professor A. Young, ventriloquist, was present and entertained the audience with his capital work.

Stephen Drury was one of the specialists at the concert and his charcter songs were loudly applauded.

Miss Coburn, of Bienheim, gave several excellent vicilin solos, and was re-Otis Nicholi, the local humorist, At the conclusion of the program votes of thanks were passed to the L.E. & D. R. R. and to Percy Gahan, the made a great hit.

Mrs. C. Toll, wife of the station agent at Coatsworth, won the thanks of the Pstrictic Club by the generous loan of her spiendid plane.

Both Mr. Toll and Mr. Taylor entertained the visiting artists in a most nospitable manner.

Great credit is due Kenneth Coats worth who was one of the most active workers in bringing the concert to uccessful issue. Two hundred native deserters from
