Mr. Sifton's Peanut Crop.

Kingston, Oct. 17.—In Hon. Clifford Sifton's garden at Assinabolne Lodge on the St. Lawrence River, near Brock-ville, the gardener, William Griffiths, is reaping the harvest of a peanut crop, planted early in the season. The growing of peanuts is an experiment in this country, but Mr. Griffiths is an expert, and by the present effort it is seen that fully developed and well-flavored peanuts can be grown here.

This is an apt description of constipation! It's an unnatural condition to begin with, and it's more, because it brings about blood deterioration, interferes with digestion, renders you susceptible to infectious diseases and causes anaemia. "Quick lunch" is one of the commonest of city signs. The sign does not say "a healthy lunch of good food—the character of the food apparently is not considered. It's just a quick lunch,—eat and get away. Is it any wonder that the stomach breaks down? Food is thrown at it, sloppy, indigestible and innutritions food, very often, and the stomach has to do the best it can. Normally there should be no need for medical assistance for the stomach. But the average method of life is abnormal and while this continues there will always be a demand for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is the one medicine which can be relied on to cure diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It is not a cure-all. It combines the weave of the old Irish poplin with the suppleness and grace of the present day fabrics. In gray it is particularly pretty.

Velvet ribbon trims many of the daintiest autumn costumes. It appears in very wide widths or in groupings of narrow ribbons, three to nine rows in each group.

A hovelty seen in an importation of fall costumes was a bronze green cloth suit with mandolin shaped jacket. The skirt was modeled in overskirt effect obtained by four well cut gored flounces arranged to give a plaited effect in front. A tan crepe de chine blouse of the washable variety was covered by mandolin shaped crossed fronts held in place by jet buttons set upon insets of white broadcloth. Washington, Oct. 17.—The controversy which has been waged between the American and Canadian lake fisheumen for the past twenty years has been placed in a different light by a report made to the State Department by Capt. E. C. Chayter, commanding the United States revenue cutter Morrill on the great lakes.

The report shows that the American fishermen have been the transgressors, and that they have been treated with the greatest consideration by the Camadian fishing patrol.

CONVICT LABOR Nevel Plan For Its Utilization dor as a Penal Colony-Fill

The question of what to do with convict labor is now engaging public attention, says a writer in The Montreal Standard. Labor organizations are protesting against the labor of the various penitentiaries being employed at trades which come into contact with free and honest labor. The products of prison work are being sold in the public marts in competition with those of free labor, and to its great detriment. The question of what to do with o public marts in competition with those of free labor, and to its great detriment.

From a psychological and physical standpoint convicts must be given some form of work while serving their sentences, and it is perhaps immaterial what this work may be, its products will find the way into the markets of the world. Not only are protests coming from labor organizations, but the manufacturers are equally promounced in their opinion that prison labor should be taken out of the range of competition with free labor.

Convicts must be kept at work, otherwise penitentiaries will become mere asylums for the idler and the tramp, and a haven of rest to the criminal. On the other hand, industrial interests demand a modification of the present system of prison employment. They go further and say that the manufactured articles coming from the penitentiaries should be so designated.

What, then, is to be our disposition of prison labor?

The municipal authorities throughout the country have of recent years provided prisoners with work on the public highways, and the moral effect has been surprisingly good. It would be impossible, perhaps, to make such provisions for the convicts of our penitentiaries, although there is no reason why a convict should not be kept in or transferred to, the local fall and made to serve his time there as an employe of the municipality. Breaking stones or making toads seems to be the best thing that can be provided those syll-doers.

A Great Task Awaiting Labor.

For several years past the practicability of closing the Strait of Belie eurrent rushes through it with fearful velocity. On either side are high mountains of bare and solld rock, and in these we have an abundance of material with which to bridge this passage of water, which is only about nine salles wide at the narrowant next.

sage of water, which is only about nine miles wide at the narrowest part.

By contract labor, the work would, as already stated, cost an enormous amount of money: by convict labor it would be comparatively small. The suggestion, then, is to make Labrador a penal colony for Canada, and utilize prison labor in filling the Strait of Belle Isle. The colony might be divided into two camps, one on the Quebec and the other on the Newfoundland side. The filling could thus be going on from both sides.

It is not generally known, says The Colborne Express, but nevertheless a fact that there are people still living who can remember the time when to-matoes were raised merely for their beauty, as we now raise roses. While its beauty was admired it was considered like the poisonous cak, dangerous to sven handle except by "dark complected" persons. Years of acquaint-anceship, however, wore off its superstition and a few "fool-hardy" actually owned up to having tasted the fruit. From this small beginning has gradually grewn a use that makes today an industry with a combined capital of over thirty millions of dollars, which disburses millions of dollars to its employes each year and aggregates an output of two hundred and forty million cana.
