

In fruit selling perhaps more distinctly than in most anything else. Toward Christmas baking many are turning their thoughts. New fruits coming in now are at their best. There's no doubt that the earlier shipments are always the finest flavored fruit. We shall be much pleased to show you the fine fruits we are selling, and give you prices. You do not run any chances in buying your Christmas fruit here.

NEW BAND

H. C. Philp to Conduct the 24th Regimental Band—Fine Musical Organization

The application of H. C. Philp for bandmaster of the 24th Regimental Band has been duly accepted by the officers and the re-organization of the band under military regulations will be taken up at once.
Mr. Philp is forming a military band of some 25 members, composed of the pick of the Regimental and Citizens' bands with one or two outside musicians, and lovers of good band music are looking for the best band heard in Chatham for some years.

There is not the slightest authority for the report which appeared in a local paper that the Citizens' Band were disgruntled over Mr. Philp's application and appointment. Both bands are heartily sympathetic with the new condition of affairs, and Col. Rankin and the officers, with Mr. Philp, are to be congratulated on the very happy outcome.
The new Regimental Band is being organized immediately.

THEORIES ABOUT FOOD

Also a Few Facts on the Same Subject.

We hear much nowadays about health foods and hygienic living, about vegetarianism, and many other fads along the same line. Restaurants may be found in the larger cities where no meat, pastry or coffee is served and the food crank is in his glory, and arguments and theories galore advanced to prove that meat was never intended for human stomachs, and almost make us believe that our sturdy ancestors, who lived four-score years in robust health on roast beef, pork and mutton must have been grossly ignorant of the laws of health.

Our forefathers had other things to do than formulate theories about the food they ate. A warm welcome was extended to any kind, from bacon to ascorbics.

A healthy appetite and common sense are excellent guides to follow in matters of diet, and a mixed diet of grains, fruits and meats is undoubtedly the best.

As compared with grains and vegetables, meat furnishes the most nutriment in a highly concentrated form and is digested and assimilated more quickly than vegetables or grains.
Dr. Julius Remmonson, on this subject, says: "Nervous persons, people run down in health and of low vitality should eat meat and plenty of it. If the digestion is too feeble at first it may be easily corrected by the regular use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal. Two of these excellent tablets taken after dinner will digest several thousand grains of meat, eggs or other animal food in three hours, and no matter how weak the stomach may be, no trouble will be experienced if a regular practice is made of using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, because they supply the pepsin and diastase necessary to perfect digestion, and every form of indigestion will be overcome by their use."

That large class of people who come under the head of nervous dyspepsia should eat plenty of meat and insure its proper digestion by the daily use of a safe, harmless digestive medicine like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, composed of the natural digestive principles, pepsin, diastase, fruit acids and salts which actually perform the work of digestion. Cheap cathartic medicines, masquerading under the name of dyspepsia cures, are useless for indigestion, as they have absolutely no effect upon the actual digestion of food.

Dyspepsia in all its many forms is simply a failure of the stomach to digest food, and the sensible way to solve the riddle and cure the dyspepsia is to make daily use at meal time of a preparation like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which is endorsed by the medical profession and known to contain active digestive principles.

Note The Well Dressed Man

See if he's not our customer. You'll find that he is in a great majority of cases. Good dressers have formed a habit of coming here. It is needless to say to them "Get the Habit", for they have already got it. There is a reason for contracting it, too. Boiled down, it's this. It's because the particular man knows full well that when he comes here his satisfaction is assured. He gets the country's best. Made in Chatham by Chatham mechanics who expend their money here.

TENDER RESIGNATIONS

Dr. and Mrs. Bray, who were personal friends of the distinguished visitor and Mrs. Pyne, to be present. In addition it was thought the chairman and Mrs. Morley should be present, and they were also good enough to ask Mrs. McKeough and myself. This latter kindness I am told was partly because I was a Grit and it was the desire to make the affair non-political that Reformers might vie with Conservatives in showing hospitality to a distinguished Canadian; partly because I was identified with the medical profession and a member of the School Board. The kindness I appreciated, but I should explain to allay the anxiety it must doubtless occasion in certain quarters that Mr. Morley and myself insisted on paying for our own dinners and those of our wives.

Janitor Edwards, of the Central school, tendered his resignation, which was accepted and the managers authorized to secure a successor.
