WOLFVILLE.

The Boy Scouts.

On Saturday last, in spite of the unfavorable weather, the boys, supervised by Mr. Al. Wetherbe, made a good start toward moving their building to its new position. At 7 o'clock Monday morning they returned to the attack and before 9 had it in its place.

The thanks of the Scouts are due to Mr. Wetherbe for his generous help and to those persons, particularly Mr. Sydney Borden, of Port Williams, who loaned the necessary gear free of charge.

Wednesday evening the Wolves turned out and started to clear up the interior of the building. This will be continued at 6.30 Friday evening.

On Saturday afternoon, weather permitting, there will be rifle practice. All Scouts to meet at the new Club Room at 2 p.m.

Miss Elenor Smith, of Windsor, the Y. Union organizer met a number of young ladies of the town at the home of Mrs. Sleep, Tuesday evening, April fifteenth. After discussing the Y. work, a Wolfville Y. was formed which should be encouraged and strengthened by all to work for God and home and native land.

Brown Leghorn eggs for hatching, 50 cents per setting. Also a hot water incubator, 120 capacity, will be sold cheap.

C. A. PATRIQUIN, Wolfville.

The resignation of Mr. A. E. Caldwell as Town Clerk has been received to take effect the first of June. We understand Mr. Caldwell will not return to Wolfville. He has been a faithful official and his place will be filled with difficulty. Mr. Caldwell has long been a resident of Wolfville and will be much missed.

Just received, a full supply of pocket flashlights. One look at our window will convince you that we have the most up to date stock in Wolfville. F. O. GODFREY.

The recital by the pupils of Acadia Seminary last Friday evening in College Hall was well attended and very enjoyable. The program which was presented by representatives of the different departments was highly creditable to all concerned.

Comment.

In the interests of the S. P. C., in the interests of the children, in the interests of the deacon and usefulness of domestic animals, and in the interests of the Giver of all life, I cannot refrain from writing a few lines for the purpose of correcting an impression which might have been received from a sentence in a report of an Easter concert recently published in THE ACADIAN, with reference to the time spent in training dogs and cats, as 'vain and wicked,' in comparison with the supreme importance of teaching the children.

The writer of the report did not intend to be the means of harm to the animals. His thought was, 'Ye are of more value than many sparrows,' but God also said, 'Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and one of them shall not fall to the ground without your Father.'

The short periods of time spent in teaching the dog or cat are not missed by the children, and they are much interested in both animals. The devotion of the dog is proverbial.

I shall never forget the impression 'The dog on his master's grave' made on my mind and soul, when, as a child, I read the story and looked at the picture. I frequently meet a dog on our streets, which is worthy of attention, accompanying his master, and a young child, whose welfare he protects, and whose life, if need be, he would save.

The cat deserves better care than the pretty, affectionate, useful little bundle of fur usually receives. She is often hungry and thirsty, wet and cold, and her cries are unheeded. She likes shelter from severe storms and cold, and sometimes mice are scarce. They are very apt to run away from the place where Miss Pussy is. She likes a little meat or fish, and warm milk very much. Some day I will tell the children of some little lessons I have taught my pussy, and how well she remembers her lessons. I don't use any form of punishment in teaching her. Kindness never fails to gain its reward.

A Coming Lecture.

Professor D. Fraser Harris, M. D., D. Sc., F. R. S. E., will deliver a lecture in College Hall of this town on the evening of May 9th—subject: "Science and the future of the race." Dr. Harris, who is the professor in the department of physiology in Dalhousie University, will, we know from past experience, render a treat to all who avail themselves of the privilege of hearing him on this important subject.

Professor Harris has been granted upon to give this lecture under the auspices of the Organization for the People Minded. The executive of the Nova Scotia Medical Society, which latter meets in Wolfville in the first week of July next, had hoped to have had the Professor's valuable services at a public meeting during the session of the society; but as professor Harris intends sailing for England early in July we have secured him for an earlier date. The lecture will be illustrated with lantern slides, also demonstrations upon the blackboard. Although we do not know the exact line of argument the lecturer will present, yet we do know that the title of the lecture already announced, with Dr. Harris behind it, is a sufficient guarantee of deep interest to all who may hear it.

Much we know, is yet to be done before a healthy public opinion can be created in connection with social hygiene. We are beginning to understand more and more of the laws governing hereditary transmission of normal and abnormal characteristics and those possessed with this knowledge should be available for the public good. Although there are few who are sufficiently equipped and willing to speak to the public on this great and important subject of the day, we are convinced that Professor Harris is one of them. Don't forget.

Cause for Alarm

Loss of appetite or distress after eating a symptom that should not be disregarded. It is not what you eat but what you digest and assimilate that does you good. Some of the strongest, healthiest persons are moderate eaters. Nothing will cause more trouble than a disordered stomach, and many people contract serious maladies through disregard of abuse of the stomach.

We urge all who suffer from indigestion, or dyspepsia, to try Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets with the understanding that we will refund the money paid us without question or formality, if after use you are not perfectly satisfied with results. We recommend Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets to customers every day, and have yet to lose of one who has not been benefited. We believe them to be the most reliable, and most powerful, reliable, aiding to neutralize acidity, stimulate flow of gastric juice, strengthen the digestive organs, and thus promote perfect nutrition and complete freedom from dyspepsia. Three sizes, 25 cents, 50 cents, and $1.00. You can buy Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets in this community only at our store:

Opera House.

'Perry's Peerless Players' with Dan Malloy and Hazel Corinne in the leading roles will appear here two nights only, next Thursday and Friday, May 1st and 2nd, and during their short stay here will present two of New York's greatest successes, 'Just Plain Molly' and 'Folly of the Circus'. The company carry all the special scenery and effects for each production, which is presented complete in every detail and the first time anywhere at popular prices, 25, 35 and 50 cents. Several high class specialties are introduced between the acts that are worth the price of admission alone. Order your seats early for this show.

Academy Declamation.

The annual Academy Declamation Contest for the Boates' Medal took place on Friday, April 18th. The contestants were J. B. Shaffer, I. A. Rouse, S. Dick, M. F. Gregg, and J. H. McNeill. The young men made a very creditable showing for their first appearance on the platform. After due consideration the judges awarded the Contest to M. F. Gregg, of Mountsindale, N. B. The judges were, Dr. DeWolfe, J. S. Foster and C. W. Robinson. The medal, to be donated by I. S. Boates, will be awarded at the Anniversary, May 26 next.
