Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Port Williams.

Several families have been enjoying the cool breezes at the seashore. Dr. Fullerton's and H. Brown's at Halls Harbor; J. W. Harvey's and K. Hibbert's also Mr. Peter Lingley and daughter Miss Pearl, at Scotts Bay, which with its motor boats, beautiful scenery, etc., is fast becoming a favorite summer resort. Miss Ellen Rand is at Avonport Beach.

Miss Woodbury, of Halifax, has been the guest of Mrs. Fred Weaver, George L. Chwood, who recently met with a very serious accident in the bay. He is doing well under the skillful care of Dr. G. E. D. Witt.

The new barn of G. H. Gates is now about completed and will hold 200 tons of hay and accommodate twenty five horses, a large barn, also a new carpenter shop.

G. S. Lockwood has been improving his residence by the addition of a large piazza across the front and south side.

Blueberry excursions is the order of the day.

By the way, we have recently been hearing the sound of rumbling noise, or what is the matter with us having a doctor of our own at the Port? That is right, the writer hastily seconds that sound. Now then all together, a strong pull, for that a doctor of our own. This stirring up of village usually accomplishes what it undertakes and we feel sure all the several surrounding places will unite with us in this need, as they are further away from doctors than we are, and they are a lot to do and energetic people. A doctor located here would do all right. The doctors in the towns of Kentville and Wolfville all have enough to do without coming to us. Now then, somebody make a start and rush this thing, the sooner the better. Winter is very near to us; usually lots of need for a doctor then.
