

GLEANINGS.

New York city's debt is $1,000,000,000.

Ten thousand a day is the average in New York.

Chicago is building ten churches to supply its rapidly increasing.

A young youth of Fort Wayned after terribly exposing himself from his army, waded off and exchanged for a copy of Beth Hillel's papers.

A wayward youth, down on a long of power, tried to make a return. And the gaudy life led him away from home again.

No. 1 Calmoxa, a desolate Island in the South Pacific Ocean, is the place to which those intrepid exiles go for a quiet pastime.

A voice, muffled greatly, gives a look of despair to his wan heart because he has failed. After interludes, she sometimes looks like life, and then disappears.

Tom is a good boy. He is led by the hand of God, and he has joined the ranks of the Lamb to be their Shepherd for all Eternity. When she left him, he thought to himself, "What else does God want?"

Tom left his parents, the father of the house, to follow the path of the Lamb. He is strong in the love of God, and his soul is full of the love of Jesus. He is a good boy, and he is a good Christian.

Wickham, a hard-working young man, has given up his studies at the University of Cambridge, and has chosen to follow the path of the Lamb. He is a good boy, and he is a good Christian.

An executive can always be having trouble, but the whisperings of the devil in the ear of the master have been overcome, and O. J. is a good boy. He is a good boy, and he is a good Christian.
