Proposal to Suspend Educational Test in Cases.

W. J. Smith, of Guelph, Elected President.

Epworth League and Rally.-The Laymen's Meeting.

Brantford, June 3 .- "In the opinion of this conference, the time has come for the devising of means by which men gifted to preach the gospel, but who do ot possess the education called for un the Methodist Church discipline, car be ordained as ministers.

The above resolution was unanimou passed at the ministerial session of the by passed at the ministerial session of the Hamilton conference, which opened its general sitting in Wellington Street Methodist Church here to-day. It is intended to prepare a memorial, which will be forwarded to the general conference two years hence, conveying this message and asking that the necessary legislation be granted to make such a state of affairs possible. The resolution is designed to open the way for a great change in the discipline of the Methodist Church. It is felt that there are many gifted men throughout the country, men capable, too, and who are filling rulpits on occasions, who ought to try, men capable, too, and who are fill ing pulpits on occasions, who ought to be allowed within the ministerial fold without having secured the education asked for, because in most cases they are too old to obtain that education.

The particular case which resulted in the passing of the above resolution with the passing the passin

The particular cases which resulted in the passing of the above resolution was that of Mr. W. W. Lowe, who for the past fifteen years has been preaching around Wiarton, and who for the past three years has been preaching supplies constantly. A motion from the Wiarton district was presented to the ministers, asking that in consideration of Mr. Lowe's age and his great ability, the gates should be lowered and he be admitted into the ministry. The motion was a long one and aroused great interest, while it was being read.

Rev. A. J. Irwin, of Tara, the secretary of the Hamilton conference, and who is also of the Wiarton district, rose immediately and announced that he was prepared to swallow all his prejudices, and second the motion as it stood. A storm of discussion arose. Ministers rose one after another and declared that the move was not legal and could not be done. Opinions on both sides of the question were offered in numbers, Finally it was referred to the Committee on Conference Relations, and that body reported that this conference had not the way to reduce the cordain Mr. Lowe. THE ELECTIONS.

THE ELECTIONS.

The general conference opened in the afternoon. Rev. W. J. Smith, of Guelph, was elected president by an overwhelming majority on the first ballot, he securing 170 votes out of a possible 261. Rev. C. T. Bennett, of Wiarton, was elected secretary. He appointed Rev. A. I. Terryberry, of Grimsby, as first assistant secretary; Rev. A. E. Smith, of Caledonia, as statistical secretary, and A. J. Snyder, of St. George, as journal secretary.

Following the announcement of the result of the presidential balloting, Rev. Thomas Colling, of Drayton, last year's president, called the president-elect to the platform. He was introduced to the gathering by Rev. Dr. A. L. Gee, of this city. Rev. Mr. Smith, after a splendid address, touching upon the call of his father, Rev. Philander Smith, and of himself to the ministry, craved the indulgence of the conference while acting as their chairman.

THE NEW PRESIDENT. THE NEW PRESIDENT.

The former President then vacated the chair, and the new man commenced his duties as chairman. He is not an old man. He is a grandson of Rev. Dr. Philander Smith, a Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Canada. He was ordained in 1891, and is a graduate of Victoria Victoria The was for two years as-University. He was for two years as sistant to Rev. J. A. His next call was to a church here, the next to Guelph, and now he goes to Hamilton. In 1899 he was Secretary of the Toronto Conference.

AID FOR FERNIE CHURCH. Another incident of the afternous and spontage seasion was the generous and spontaneous response to a request for financial aid by Rev. Leashley Hall, of Fernie, B. C. This minister is seeking aid to assist in the rebuilding of his church, which was burned in the great fire of last summer. His new edifice is to cost $16,000. Half of this amount has been raised, and Mr. Hall is hopeful that Ontario will give him the rest. He painted a graphic picture of the great forest fire and of the needs of his church there.

TO CONVERT "THE WARD."
Rev. Dr. Chown, of Toronto, General Secretary of the Committee on Temperance and Moral Reform, and Rev. W. E. Hassard, Secretary of the Canadian Bible Society, also gave short addresses. Dr. Chown confined himself entirely to problems arising out of his own branch of work. He would, he said, like to see the indeterminate sentence as applied to eriminals worked out more fully. The aspirations of thousands of wrongdoers had been blighted by compelling them to be associated with convicts of confirmed habits for wrongdoing. He would also like to have a profound student of sociology come to Toronto and go through "The Ward," find out the habits of life of the inhabitants, and so bring about the conversion of that densely populated foreign section of the city.

EPWORTH LEAGUE AND SUNDAY EPWORTH LEAGUE AND SUNDAY EPWORTH LEAGUE AND SUNDAY EPWORTH LEAGUE AND SUNDAY SCHOOL.

In the evening an Epworth League and Sunday school rally service was held, Addresses were delivered by Rev. A. J. Elson, of Guelph, Rev. D. W. Snider and Rev. A. C. Eddy. Mr.

Eddy spoke of the place of the Sun-day School in Church life. Mr. Elson, who goes as a mis-y to China this fall, told the sionary to China this fail, told the congregation the circumstances lead-ing up to his accepting the call to the foreign field. He considered it a great honor to have a hand in shaping the destinies of that now mighty nation beyond the seas.

LAYMEN'S ASSOCIATION. LAYMEN'S ASSOCIATION.

The Laymen's Association of the Hamilton Conference held a meeting in Colborne Street Methodist Church this morning and elected officers. Berlin, June 3.-There was a large gathering of citizens of Berlin at the station to welcome Hon. Mackenzie King, Minister of Labor, this after-noon. that they also had been honored by the Premier's choice.

Mr. King stated that his elevation to the Cabient had been due, not to any particular merit of his own, but was due to the fact that he had been identified for some years past with labor and social questions, and that he represented a riding which was one of the most important industrial centres of the Dominion. He thought, too, that the Prime Minister, himself a descendant of the French race, was pleased to have the opportunity of selecting as a member of his Government one who represented a riding which was known to have such a large proportion of Germans. Both the Mayor's speech and Mr. King's reply were received with rousing cheers, in which citizens of both parties heartily united.

Pablo Herd.

Ravalli, Mont., June 3.—The task of rounding up the remaining three hundred buffalo of the Pablo herd for Canada—has proyen more difficult than expected. The animals have shown themselves pretty wild, and their resistance to corraling has been at times not only exciting, but dangerous. The cowboys have been chased and horses attacked by the furious animals, but so far no one has been hurt. On several occasions bunches of the buffalo that were corraled have broken away and fled to the hills. Up to date nearly two broken are included in the synagogue with a handsome canopy, which hereafter will be used at all of the weddings.

Already this little association of earnest workers has raised sufficient money to be able to buy about one thousand dunam of land, and they are now negotiating for its purchase. Mr. de Sola is consulting Palestinian authorities as to the best place in which to make the purchase. He is furthermore issuing an appeal to all Canadian Zionists, asking them to follow the example of the Winnipeg association, and he is elaborating a plan by which he hopes to get all Canadian Zionists to join in an enterprise for purchasing land for Jewish settlers in Palestine.

sensational conflict at Laguna, Teneriffe between monks of the Paulistas order and the people of the town. The monks recently established themselves at Laguna and obtained charge of a seminary from the local clergy, which caused an intense feud. The bishop yesterday suspended two local priests at the instigation of the monks, thereby greatly adding to the indignation of the populace, about 800 of whom went to the episcopal palaes and the seminary, demanding that the suspension be cancelled. The bishop refused, whereupon the crowd attacked the seminary. The monks, however, were prepared for contingencies and met the assailants with rifles. They put up a valiant resistance, but ultimately they were outnumbered and the seminary was practically reduced to ruins. Several monks and more than thirty of the townsfolk were seriously injured. # TO PREVENT cism, the open and inquiring mind should be the attitude of medical mer oward the treatment of disease, said Professor William Osler, regius professor of medicine at Oxford University, in his address before the Ontario Medical Association yesterday ternoon. In the course of the address he commented on the progress which medical science had made recent years. That progress had really been of the nature of a com-plete change, and medical activities were now rather directed towards the ideal of prevention instead of being confined to cure. He urged that med-ical men should not allow themselves to confined to cure. He urged that medical men should not allow themselves to get into any rut. Theories should be submitted to continual proof. Lastly, he dealt with the training of medical students, earnestly advocating that they should in the course of their instruction be given greater opportunities to study the practical side of medicine in the outpatients' department and in the wards. Too much of the practical work which students should be instructed in was, in his opinion, left to nurses.

Osler Addresses Ontario Medical Association.

Attitude of Profession Towards Treatment of Disease.

Epidemic of Faith-Healing a Recrudescence from Ancient Times.

In view of the numbers who were anxious to hear Dr. Osler, the lecture hall of the Physics building was placed at the disposal of the association, and the attendance was larger than at any of the other gatherings held in the course of the annual meeting.

The chair was occupied by the retiring President, Dr. H. J. Hamilton, who in welcoming Dr. Osler said that apparently that gentleman's life work was resolving itself into a tour of the world, which they all hoped would terminate in his return to Toronto.

Dr. Osler, who was most cordially received, after expressing his gratification.

his return to Toronto.

Dr. Osler, who was most cordially received, after expressing his gratification at the presence of his old instructor, Dr. Richardson, the oldest ex-President of the association, immediately addressed himself to his subject. The dominant view of the nature of the disease, he said, outlined its treatment. As was their pathology, so was their practice. Thus in the centuries passed, when disease was looked upon as the direct outcome of sin, the treatment was simply an effort to arrive at a readjustment of man's relations with the invisible power, malign or benign. Solomon's book of wisdom dealing with human ills was placed in the open in the temple, but it was removed by one of his successors lest the tampering with things beyond man's ken should annoy God, and even in modern days in some countries the same childlike faith prevailed.

Great as had been the previous progress, there had been in the last fifty years a complete revolution in the attitude towards the treatment of disease. It had become recognized that it was due to chemical conditions in the fluids and tissues of the body, and, therefore, they had reached the standpoint of approaching prevention and cure in a rattional way. The highest aim was to Dr. Osler, who was most cordially reand tissues of the body, and, therefore, they had reached the standpoint of approaching prevention and cure in a rational way. The highest aim was to prevent, and in this direction the greatest progress had been made. Panama, once the grave of the white man, in October last had a death rate of only twelve per thousand, and the problem of life in the tropics had been solved now that it had been shown that malaria could be prevented by very simple measures. They had been able to get rid of many of the nauseous decoctions with which people used to be dosed, and many of the old atrocities. They had also been taught to recognize their limitations, to accept the fact that certain diseases were incurable, and to direct their attention to making the vertices. diseases were incurable, and to direct their attention to making the patient comfortable. "It is a hard matter to tell a patient that he is beyond hope," he said, "but for an intelligent man it is the best. We should be ready to make personal sacrifice in the cause of truth and loyalty to the profession." truth and loyalty to the profession.'

They had reason to hope that diabete

They had reason to hope that diabetes might be placed on a sure foundation, but year by year pneumonia taught them the lesson of humility. They might wonder whether they did not lose as many patients from that disease as did their forefathers, but still they had the consolation that the old doctors, with their violent methods, must have killed many.

Their attitude should be one of active scepticism, born of the knowledge of limitation, for by that means true progress might be made. Indiscriminate dosing he condemned, and in this connection he admitted that he was often called a therapeutic nihilist. The day had passed, however, when they attacked a disease with a prescription loaded with a multitude of drugs. While acknowledging the debt the profession owed to the large manufacturing pharmacists, he strenuously objected to their methods of loading down the profession with literature in which he described as brazen therapeutic impudence.

Proceeding, he said: "An influenzalike outbreak of faith-healing seems to have the public of this continent in its grip. It is an old story, the oldest, indeed, in our history, and one in which dome, and three sons, Herbert and James, on the home farm, and Richard,

Proceeding, he said: "An influenzalike outbreak of faith-healing seems to have the public of this continent in its grip. It is an old story, the oldest, indeed, in our history, and one in which we have a strong hereditary interest, since scientific medicine took its origin in a system of faith-healing, beside which all our modern attempts look feeble imitations. Once or twice in each century the serpent entwining the staff of Aesculapius gets restless, untwists, and in his gambols swallows his tail, and once in full circle back upon us comes old thought and old practices which for a time dominate alike doctors and the laity." Yet faith must play some part, for if patients had not faith in their doctor where would be his clientele?
