COMMITTED FOR TRIAL.

Case Against Union Moulder Does Not Look Strong.

Cutting and Wounding Case Against a Colored Man.

False Pretence Charge Against John Hamilton Fails.

William Skimerton, Toronto, an offi cer in the Moulders' Union, goes up for trial, accused of intimidating and assaulting Joseph Feeley, a non-union oulder, last Monday night. George S. Kerr, K. C., defended, and for his client pleaded not guilty and declined to elect.

pleaded not guilty and declined to elect.

Feeley told of meeting Skimerton and others last Monday at noon time, when the matter of him rejoining the union was mentioned. They all adjourned to the Metropole Hotel, he said, and had many drinks during the discussion. He (Feeley) did not go to work that afternoon, but between 5 and 6 o'clock he was Skimerton and others are not the moon, but between 5 and 6 o'clock he met Skimerton and others again on the corner of King William and John streets, where the mix-up took place, over matters of the non-unionists' objection to join the union.

Feeley said Skimerton said to him. "You're no — good, anyhow." The next thing he remembered was being struck twice at once. Complainant admitted he was in a semi-intoxicated condition. At the time of the fracas he said Skimerton grabbed him by the throat.

Ernest Pratt, a mail collector, said he Ernest Pratt. a mail collector, said he saw the row, but did not see Skimerton strike Feeley, though when the latter was down he saw several kick him. Pratt said he interfered, whereat he was politely requested to withdraw or he would "get a packet of a worse brand than Feeley was getting."
Walter Willison, a non-union monder, said he was in the battle, but did not see Skimerton strike Feeley.

Rail was fixed in the sum of $500, with two sureties.

George Warren, 228 Duke street, colored, was accused of cutting and wounding Maggie Booker, of the same hue. He'll come up for hearing next Tuesday, the remand being granted at his own request. He said he was not guilty. It is alleged that Warren stabbed Miss Booker with a pair of scissors, after an altercation yesterday. The squabble, it is said, was the result of a love affair that ran not smoothly. Warren was arrested last night by P. C. Emerson, on a warrant.

John Hamilton was discharged. He was up again for hearing, charged with getting a suit of clothes from the Dominion House. Furnishing Company by false pretence. The manuger of the company said Hamilton was recommended to them by their collector. That practically decided the case in Hamilton's favor.

Mrs. Cardwell will lose her boy if he continues to stay away from school. She was up with the boy this morning and the Magistrate called him up to the throue, gave him some good sound advict, assuring him if he plays "hookey" again it's Mimico for him.

W. R. Freeman, 119 Young street, will also lose his boy for a time if he stays away from school again. Truency officer Hunter said the boy is an inveterate truaut.

Nicholas Wilbert, 147 Macaulay street east, was fined $5 because his boy did not go to school. That boy will go to Mimico if he continues to absent him-

The optical business of Dr. Maurice S. Taube, over Hennessey's drug store has been removed to 48 James street north, The Tait-Brown Optical Co. having taken it over, Dr. Taube having left the city.

WAS NOT HELD UP.

A morning paper had an item of news this morning stating that "Paddy," the Chinese cook in John's Cafe, King William street, was held up and assaulted and that the till was tapped for three days' receipts, a few nights ago. The proprietor of the cafe positively denies the story.

He says that Paddy is wearing an eye but it was not acquired in the way stated.
