

PREMIER'S WIFE

Mrs. Lloyd-George Speaking For Budget in Wales.

Premier Issues a Message to His Fellow Countrymen.

London, Dec. 28.—Mrs. Lloyd-George, the wife of the Chancellor, is making a tour of North Carnarvonshire, Wales, addressing meetings in support of her husband and the budget. Speaking at Bangor to-night she contended that the budget was perfectly equitable, that tariff reform would make millionaires and beggars, and that in the coming struggle the drink trade would fight for its very life. In London, she declared, free drinks were given to induce customers to vote against the budget. Her husband, Mrs. Lloyd-George said, would spend most of his time during the coming election in England, where the people, unlike those in Carnarvonshire, required a political doctor.

that her account be paid, whereat defendant jumped down the steps, head hid, coat on his face, and called her names.

Hawkins said Mrs. Slack called him a "dirty nigger," and used language of an unlaikely variety, which could be heard five blocks away.

When witness said her little piece the Magistrate politely told her he did not believe a word of her story.

Complainant said both defendant's and his witness' stories were lies.

THE SUICIDES.

Toronto Professor Score Press For His Reports.

New Haven, Conn., Dec. 29.—The probing of every suicide, to determine the cause of the act, was advocated by Prof. J. G. Hume, of Toronto University, in a paper read by him before the American Philosophical Association at Yale, which concluded its sessions to-day. His subject was "the significance of suicide," and he urged closed inquiry psychologically into the causes of self destruction, which he said is becoming more and more a factor of modern times.

LUCKY ESCAPE.

Toronto G. T. R. Yardman Nearly Lost His Life.

Toronto, Dec. 29.—John Langan, a Grand Truck yardman, had a narrow escape from death as he cares to have this morning. Riding eastward along a siding in front of his own shunting engine, he jumped off just as another shunting engine going in the same direction was passing. The engine struck Langan on the shoulder, knocking him down and breaking his collar bone and three ribs, and otherwise injuring him. Langan has a wife and two children.

Some people look on the bright side, and some are always on the fence.

The man who boasts that he never uses profanity is apt to inspire the most on others.

WILLIAM EWART GLADSTONE

Born 29th December, 1809

A man to be remembered long by all who love and reverence lofty worth; Who measured every aim and action in the light reflected on it from the source Of all true wisdom and illumination; And who, assured whereon and where he stood, Rushed through with what he fashioned like a whirlwind; Mistaken he may have made—all men are human— But for what grand old Gladstone did for the British Empire, and, though it be the world at large, Canadians with the rest, Will thank and bless the Lord of Lords to-day.

KINGSTON FIRE.

$8,000 Damage Done to Dry Goods Store.

(Special Wire to the Times.) Kingston, Ont., Dec. 29.—Fire broke out about 7 o'clock this morning in the basement in Crumley Bros' dry goods store, on Princess street, and smoke and water did damage to the stock to the extent of about $8,000, the loss being covered by insurance. The heat from the furnace set fire to a nearby post, which supports the beams under the main floor. The fire department extinguished the fire by Babcock's extinguisher.

WATCHED HIM.

Young Man Never Missed Sunday School in 14 Years.

(Special Wire to the Times.) Kingston, Dec. 29.—A unique presentation was made in Cook's Church last night, when William Clenahan, a young man, was presented with a monogram watch and a chain in recognition of the fact that he had attended the Sunday school of that church for fourteen consecutive years without having missed a single Sunday.

MEAN MAN.

Took Food From Family and Left Them to Starve.

Ottawa, Dec. 28.—Lambert Amyotte, of L'Annonciation, was brought before Magistrate Goyette in the Hull Police Court for trial. Numerous witnesses testified that he had frequently given provisions to Mrs. Amyotte, which the prisoner had taken away to the bush with him on his hunting expeditions, leaving his wife and nine children starving and neglected. Magistrate Goyette in sentencing Amyotte to four months in jail with hard labor, stated that this was one of the worst cases of cruelty and neglect that had been before him for some time. The prisoner had acted heartlessly, even stealing the food from his dying wife's mouth, and he regretted he had not the power to impose a stiffer sentence.

TUDOR INN AND TEA ROOM.

The carpenters and decorators who have been transforming the premises, 24 King street east, south side, into an up-to-date tea room have completed their work and to-morrow the Tudor Inn and Tea Room will open for business. One would travel quite a distance before seeing as complete and cozy quarters for dining purposes. It will be run on a strictly first-class basis and the dinners and luncheons will be served quickly and at moderate prices. There will be a special business lunch from 11.45 a. m. to 2 p. m.; afternoon tea from 3 to 5 p. m., and dinner from 6 to 8 o'clock. Special attention will be given to theatre parties and the management will be glad to give full information and book appointments. This new eating house is in the centre of the city and the bill-of-fare, service and surroundings should assure for it liberal patronage from the citizens.

Ice Skating Best.

A doctor of high repute was asked recently what he considered was the best form of sport for the young people in the winter season. "Undoubtedly," said he, "they all have their value, but to my mind and from experience, I think ice skating takes the lead." Parents should remember this, and urge their sons and daughters to attend the rink. The This has an excellent band, and the associations are very pleasant.

There are times when every man's life when he feels that he wouldn't want to live forever.

GIRL STRIKERS.

Sell Newspapers of New York Shirtwaist Makers.

(A. P. Despatch to the Times.) New York, Dec. 29.—Scores of shirt waist strikers played the part of "newsies" to-day. Garbed in their best, the girls invaded the residence and business districts, selling copies of a newspaper, printed under their editorship, and setting forth in numerous articles their side of the strike issue. The strikers were aided in their editorial work by young college women, who volunteered for the task.

Miss Elizabeth Dutcher, one of the Vassar graduates having the newspaper venture in charge, declared her confidence in the result of the girls' campaign. "They will gain many sympathizers when people see how intelligent, well dressed and refined they are," said Miss Dutcher to-day.
