The illustrations of The Illustrated London News (American edition) for November 6th, present an unusual illustration as well as entertainment, and cover the customary broad range of this long established and widely known publication. They are indicated by the following titles: Sketches of the Dominion Elections, The Disputed District of Westchester at Piquet, State of Ireland, The Late Mrs. Crank, H. M. S. Wasp, Sketches on the River Congo, Sketches at the Oct Show, Crystal Palace, The Late Lady Brassey, Grand Durbar at Mandalay, in the Bannock Valley, Ardennes, A Tame Lion, Algeria, and The Kall Ghant, Calcutta. Reading matter in abundance is also provided, while now it is becoming quite generally known that our ten cents every week sell the paper for ten cents. New York office, which is in the Potter Building.

In our obituary column last week, there appeared a notice of the death of Miss Lavette Houghton, of County Linn. We have since ascertained that the notice was bogus, as the young lady in question is alive and in her usual good health. The letter which was sent to this office requesting the insertion purported to have come from her father. We did not ask for a moment's delay in the publication of the communication, as it would be difficult to imagine that anyone would do so heartless and so utterly devoid of the finer feelings of humanity as to be guilty of an act that must necessarily cause a great amount of anxiety among the friends and relatives of the young lady. Not only this, but the writer is also guilty of forging the name of the girl's father. Persons fond of perpetrating jokes of this kind should be ferreted out and summarily dealt with, for they certainly are a source of danger to the community.
