

The Poet's Corner.

The Manly Man.

It isn't the boy that doubles his fists
And thrusts them under another's nose
Haring the sleeves from his rigid wrists
Ready to rain vindictive blows;
Whose tongue is ready with gibe and jeer
To stir up strife whenever he can;
Breathing menace and waking fear,
Who grows to be a manly man.

It isn't the boy who takes his mug
Of the horrible liquid labeled beer,
Then hangs himself by a silly bug
The liveliest lamp-post standing near;
The he smokes the vilest cigarette,
And lord it over a black and tan,
Or a gallant horse, I can tell him yet,
He's far from being a manly man.

It isn't loose speech nor dress that is loud;
It isn't the cut of the coat he may wear;
A clown with ease attracts a crowd,
And wins a senseless shout and stare;
He may sport the bravest watch and chain,
With collar and necktie lead the van,
And flourish the noblest hat and cane—
These never make a manly man.

Will he think he has come to man's estate,
When he feels the down on his feeble chin?
Will he think that vices makes him great,
That only the weak are afraid of sin?
Some day to his foolish heart he will own
He might have followed a wiser plan—
One that will help, and one alone,
A boy to be a manly man.

I know you, my manly boy,
I know who followed the Golden Rule;
I know what makes you a household joy,
A priceless treasure with all the school.
I know what comfort wise hearts take
Who do you homage with all their clan,
They know very well you will one day make
A manly Christian gentleman.

Fashion's Fancies.

The velvet Tam O'Shanter with the eagle's feather is a pretty hat for a little girl.

Girls are more with plain kilts by the girls, and a very becoming costume it is.

Plain stocking to match the tartans are what little boys and girls will rejoice in the coming season.

Tall hats of silk beaver plush are worn by young ladies with their autumn costumes.

Battening cloths are in great demand for street jackets and have good wearing qualities.

Simple forms are preferred in all out of door wraps.

The velvet jockey cap is a favorite with young girls still and is appropriate with fall costumes.

The belt is worn very generally with different styles of corsets.

Long and impossible names are given to the new colors which are really old colors made again the fashion.

There is a serpent blue as well as a green by this disagreeable name, and the blue is certainly pretty if its name is not.

There are a great many new styles in heavy braid trimmings, the most fashionable of all sorts of decoration.

The white braids used to trim all sorts of colored fabrics are effective on half tints, such as French gray, mauve and the biscuit shades.

The graceful and long admired polonaise is still the most stylish overdress seen in any imported costume.

There is a great variety in the corsets of the new costumes, but all are rather fanciful and somewhat elaborate.

Light shades of cashmere make pretty petticoats of a simple kind over which are draped flowered Chelli delaines.

The milkmaid skirt, with its Highland bouffant drapery, is a pretty fashion for the flowered fabrics worn for house costumes.

Very attractive are those ornamental buttons of Ordoval leather which are shown on English wraps.

The enamel buttons with pictures of the time of Louis XV are most beautiful and would enrich any garment.

The cash curtains are stylish and are used instead of the long draperies which were formerly so stylish for lace curtains or those of scrim.

The short skirt is still fashionable except for ceremonious occasions and is always quite the thing for very young ladies.

Large hats are good form and are generally worn by stylish women in preference to a close bonnet for ordinary occasions this season.

Dr. Low's Worm Syrup will remove all kinds of Worms from children or adults.

Sashes of tartan wool are worn by little girls with plain cashmere costumes, and have a pretty effect. The ends are fringed out and overcast.

A Sad Contemplation.

It is sad to contemplate the amount of physical suffering in the world. How many weary, broken down invalids there are to whom life is burdensome! The nervous debility and general weakness of those afflicted with lingering disease is best remedied by the invigorating powers of B. B. B.

The Antidotal Doctor.

A Danbury doctor and a doctor of an adjoining town visited a patient through a sickness of nearly three weeks. Neither knew of the others visits. The patient took some of the medicine prescribed by each. She is now convalescent. The question arises, which doctor cured her? Perhaps one acted as antidote to the other.—Danbury News.

Freeman's Worm Powders are safe in all cases. They destroy and remove Worms in children or adults.

Mothers! If your daughters are in ill health, or troubled with a paleness that seems incurable, or if they suffer general debility, nervousness, languor, weakness, or loss of appetite, procure at once a bottle of Johnson's Tonic Bitters.

Farm and Garden.

The cultivation of sunflowers is on the increase. The object is fourfold: for ornament, sanitary effects, food for poultry, and in some localities a substitute for fuel.

Every farmer needs a roller. A pluck drag and pulverizer is also a useful implement.

Buhach or Persian insect powder is now advised in beans kept for seed, to prevent damage from the bean weevil.

Try boiled sweet milk for chicken diarrhoea.

It is generally conceded that the Fay currant is a success.

Proper trimming is essential to success in all fruit growing. An overburdened tree will exhaust nature's storehouse and become impaired in health and defective in fruit.

The good results of tile drainage are not all manifest in wet weather. It is equally beneficial in time of drought.

Additional encouragement to the practice of planting peach stones of fine varieties is given in the last report of the Massachusetts Horticultural society. According to the report of this society's committee on fruits, one grower who has competed at every exhibition where prizes were offered has done so almost entirely with seedling fruit.

The hog is a grass eating animal, though people do not always seem to realize it. Swine like both grass and hay.

It is reported that the round headed apple borer has been successfully excluded from trees by placing fresh manure around the base of the tree and in contact with it.

Stephen Beale remarks that it is one great advantage in using turkeys to rear your young, viz, that a turkey-hen will take to any young ones, whether hatched by herself or not.

According to a practical farmer, the increase of a flock of sheep will cover the cost of keeping it, leaving the wool clear profit; or the keeping may be charged against the wool, which will not exhaust it all, leaving the lambs clear profit.

Reliable Remedy for Rheumatism. Procure a bottle of Hagar's Yellow Oil from your medicine dealer, and use according to directions. It cured Ida Johnson, of Cornell, Ont., of that complaint, and she recommends it as a sure cure. For 25 years it has never failed to give satisfaction.

The Duty of Mothers.

No matter how poor a girl is, the moral atmosphere about her may be as pure as if she were reared in a palace, provided her mother wills it. She may not be able to give her daughter money, or even education, but she can give her a sense of honor as high as Lucretia's. To do it, she will not turn her loose on the streets to carry on flirtations with married men or send her unprotected to balls while she remains at home satisfied that the "young folks should have their fun." This is plain talk, but mothers who will read it know that it is true, and know, too, how much they are to blame that it is true.

The Modest Operandi.

The of operating Burdock Blood Bitters is that it acts at once and the same time upon the Stomach, Liver, Bowels, Kidneys and the Blood, to cleanse, regulate and strengthen. Hence its almost universal value in Chronic Complaints.

A Confirmed Swearer Rebuked.

Mr Meikle, a gentleman of eminent piety, was a surgeon at Carnwath, in Scotland. He was once called to attend a gentleman who had been stung in the face by a wasp, and found him very impatient, and swearing on account of his pain in great wrath. "Oh, doctor," said he, "I am in great torment; can you any way help?" "Do not fear," replied Mr M.; "all will be over in a little while." Still however, the gentleman continued to swear, and at length his attendant determined to reprove him. "I see nothing the matter," said he, "only it might have been in a better place." "Where might it have been?" asked the sufferer. "Why, on the tip of your tongue."

Cured by B. B. B. When all Else Failed. Mr Samuel Allan, of Lisle, Ont., states that he tried all the doctors in his locality while suffering for years with Liver and Kidney trouble; nothing benefited him until he took Burdock Blood Bitters, four bottles of which cured him.

One of the odd things of life is that every man thinks he knows how to woo a woman, sail a boat, drive a horse, and run a newspaper, without any previous experience. That one little fact accounts for a good deal of trouble in this world.

National Pills are unsurpassed as a safe, mild, yet thorough, purgative, acting upon the biliary organs promptly and effectually.

Ladies Out. The complexion is only rendered unsightly by Pimples, Liver Spots and Yellowness. These it is well known are caused from an inactive Liver and bad blood. Dr Chase's Liver Cure purifies the blood and whole system. See Recipe Book for toilet recipes, hints and suggestions on how to preserve the complexion. Sold by all druggists.

A Main street mother was whipping her boy yesterday, and as she applied the rod she shouted, "Will you behave?" "Yes," blubbered the throbbing boy, "I will if you will."

Home Rule. In Great Britain the question of Home Rule is commanding attention. To the Down Quits.

It is not given to all of us to sleep under satin comforters, filled with eider-down, but the woman who has plenty of hens and turkeys will take the trouble to fill her sixteen comforters with a fairly good substitute for the famous plumage of the eider duck. Strip the side plumes or barbs from the coarse feathers, put them into a bag, securing the mouth firmly, then rub the bag hard on the washboard or between the hands till these stripped plumes have been made into a delicate downy substance, which makes the warmest and softest of quilts "luxuriously warm," and so light as to be literally "feather-weight." It is more than suspected that the costly eider down quilts in our stores really owe their origin to the plebeian hen and turkey, instead of being composed of genuine "down." It is not nearly as much work to make one of these comforters as it was to embroider crazy quilt in the days of their popularity, and the result, if not so showy, is none the less and achievement. The material also makes an admirable lining for dressing gowns; and the most luxurious coverlet for the baby's crib you ever heard of.

More Trouble May be Expected.

If you do not heed the warnings of nature and at once pay attention to the maintenance of your health. How often we see a person put off from day to day the purchase of a medicine which if procured at the outset of a disease would have remedied it almost immediately. Now if Johnston's Tonic Liver Pills had been taken when the first uneasiness made its appearance the illness would have been "nipped in the bud." Johnston's Tonic Liver Pills are decidedly the best medicine on the market for general tonic and invigorating properties. Pills 25c. per bottle. Bitters 50 cents and $1 per bottle, sold by Goode the druggist, Albion block, sole agent.

In a Book Entitled "The Royal Mail."

In a book entitled "The Royal Mail its Curiosities and Romances," is found in the chapter devoted to strange adventures a letter addressed "Mr. Johns, 7, Scotland" reached its destination at Johns-haven.

In Brief, and to the Point.

Dyspepsia is dreadful. Disordered liver is misery. Indigestion is a foe to good nature.

The human digestive apparatus is one of the most complicated and wonderful things in existence. It is easily put out of order.

Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this bad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember:—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings health and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents. Sowsly

Lady, jokingly—Tommy, when are you going to marry? Tommy, 8 years old and very susceptible—Well, I don't think I'll ever marry. I love so many little girls, if I married one all the rest would be jealous.

"They have a larger sale in my district," says a well known druggist, "than any other pill on the market, and give the best satisfaction for sick headache, biliousness, indigestion, etc., and when combined with Johnston's Tonic Bitters, Johnston's Tonic Liver Pills will perform what no other medicine has done before for suffering humanity." Pills 25 cents per bottle. Bitters 50 cents and $1 per bottle. Sold by Goode, Druggist, Albion block, Goderich, sole agent.

How a Dude Caught Cold.

A slim young man in the height of fashion was violently sneezing in a street car, when a companion remarked, "Ah, Charles, dear boy, how d'ye catch that dreadful cold." "Aw, dear fellow, left my cane in the lower hall to-day, and in sucking the ivory handle, so dreadful cold, it chilled me almost to death." If Charles had used Dr. Harvey's Red Pine Gum his cold would not trouble him very much. For sale at J Wilson's prescription drug store.

The Celebrated Axis Cut Pebbles

The frauds that have been perpetrated on the spectacle wear public by most spectacle dealers and peddlars by giving assumed fancy names to ordinary glass, speaks for the ignorance of the public generally, in the all-important subject of the preservation of sight. There are only two articles from which the spectacles lenses can be manufactured, viz: Pebble and glass—call glass by any other name it still remains glass. Pebble, on the other hand, is from nature's own manufactory. It is a natural crystal found generally in stone formation, and is harder than the ruby and emerald, and nearly as hard as the diamond. The Pebble is not more or less than transparent stone, cut by aid of diamond dust, and the great amount of power is placed immediately over the centre of the eye found in all pebble. It will give to the spectacle wearer the coolness and a pleasant feeling that the ordinary spectacle lens cannot by any possibility impart. All spectacles and eyeglasses stamped B. Land can only be purchased from
