Taking Too Much Responsibility.

By RUTH CAMERON.

"N o b o d y in this house will take any responsibility except me," I heard a tired mother say the other day.

What she said was true. At least, to a large extent. Her husband is an irresponsible lucky person who looks five years younger than his wife although he is actually a year or two older.

Her children are extravagant about money matters, disorderly about the house and careless in regard to their clothes. Their mother has to "keep after them all the time," as she puts it. The oldest daughter is amply old enough to take some of the care from her mother's shoulders but she never does. Her share of managing the house consists in performing certain small, routine tasks, and even here her mother has to see that the work is done and done right.

Naturally the mother of this irresponsible family, although normally a robust and energetic personality, is becoming worn out.

I don't blame her for feeling discouraged and overburdened, and yet neither do I entirely blame her family. For one of the chief reasons why they are so irresponsible is that she is so responsible.

Responsibility is not a thing that most people crave. When one member of the family gets into the habit of taking it, the rest of the family slip into the habit of yielding it.

Almost from her wedding day this woman began to take the responsibility of the family upon her shoulders. She liked to lead and rule, and responsibility came natural to her. Her

British Runners Beat Out the Americans.

Philadelphia, April 25.—Oxford University of England, won the four mile relay championship of America from the University of Pennsylvania here this afternoon in the most sensational finish ever seen in that event in the seventeen years the race has been run on Franklin field. The English team had to fight all the way and won the remarkable race by a scant foot.

The wonderful Jackson, Olympic 1,100 metre champion, the anchor man of the English team, was pushed to the limit of human endurance by McCurdy of Pennsylvania, the two mile inter-collegiate champion, and fell into the arms of his supporters as he breasted the tape.

The race was run in a heavy rain storm, and the time, 18 minutes five seconds, broke the four mile record for the Pennsylvania relays. The American and world's record is held by Cornell, 17 minutes and fifty-five seconds. The track was very heavy and experts believed it to be about five seconds slow to the mile.

So close was the race between Jackson and McCurdy that it was several minutes before the spectators could learn who had won. The two men came into the home stretch shoulder to shoulder. Thirty yards from the tape McCurdy led by about a foot. Captain Jackson made a last desperate effort to take the lead and just managed to shove his shoulder ahead of McCurdy. In this way they ran, amid in tense excitement. When Jackson got the width of his shoulder in front of McCurdy he swerved slightly in toward the pole and the shoulders of the two men were almost touching with Jackson's just in front. This was their position at the tape.

White Plymouth Rocks.

At the great Indianapolis Show, Ind. U.S.A., Feb. 7 to 7-14, and in one of the quality shows in all America and in a class of 126 White Rocks, we made this most remarkable winning:

1st. Cock: 1st. Heb: 1st & 5th. 2nd. Silver cup for best shaped male, silver cup for best shaped female, silver cup for best colored specimen. Surely this is a record to be proud of.

This is what Judge Schwab has to say about them: "The winning cock-erels, one of supreme beauty, elegant form, and the best of color and condition. First hen up to highest standard."—Extract from A. P. J. April number.

Why then seek elsewhere when stock of such quality is in your own country. Only a limited number of settings to spare this season. $5.00 per setting of 15.

Yarmouth Woman Dead From Injuries

INFLECTED BY HER HUSBAND.

Yarmouth, April 23.—An awful tale of brutality came to light shortly before noon, when the death of Mrs. Ebenezer Hilton, of South Ohio, seven miles from town, became known. It transpires that the woman died as the result of injuries inflicted on her by her husband at an early hour yesterday morning. It is said that the couple had an altercation, and the man had backed his arguments by brute force. "The woman's chest is said to be beaten to a pulp and her face was severely cut. On top of the beating he threw a lighted lamp at her, hitting her in the face and practically taking her nose off. The lamp then exploded and the flames burned her hair off and set fire to her clothing. In her fight for life she inhaled so much smoke and fire that it was seen it would be impossible for her to live, and the doctors devoted their energies making her last hours as easy as possible. This same Ebenezer Hilton was in trouble some years ago, and served a term in the county jail for brutally beating and indirectly causing the death of his aged mother. In the latter case, after beating the old lady, he refused to allow her in the house and she was forced to sleep in the pig pen, bringing on an attack of pneumonia which resulted fatally.
