

To-day's Messages.

ONE DOLLAR AN HOUR.

CHICAGO, Sept. 20. Chicago's building strike and lack out, which for more than two months has made more than a hundred thousand workers idle and halted construction contracts aggregating fifty millions, was announced as ended to-night, when construction employers yielded to the demands of the Union carpenters for $1 an hour.

LEFT FOR WASHINGTON.

LONDON, Sept. 20. Viscount Grey of Fallodon, new British Ambassador to the United States left London this morning on his trip to America. Lord Reading, former British Ambassador in Washington, Winston Spencer Churchill, Secretary of War, and Earl Curzon, President of the Council, bade him farewell at the railway station. Sir William Tyrrell, Viscount Grey's Private Secretary, is accompanying the new Ambassador.

NOT A PROTECTORATE.

LONDON, Sept. 20. Great Britain's Treaty with Persia does not constitute a protectorate of the latter country in any way, the only object of the agreement being to ensure Persia an opportunity to work out her destiny as an independent country, said Earl Curzon, Government leader in the House of Lords and President of the Council, in speaking at a dinner given here yesterday in honor of the Foreign Minister of Persia.

WHITE STAR LINER ASHORE.

LONDON, Sept. 20. An Evening News despatch from Kirkwall to-day, reports a White Star liner ashore north of Ronaldsmy, and states that two thousand troops from northern Russia are on board. The liner ran ashore during a gale, adds the despatch, which gives no further details.

IMPERIAL INDUSTRIES EXHIBITION.

LONDON, Sept. 21. (Reuter's Ottawa Agency.)—In 1916, initial steps were taken to organize an exhibition of industries, inventions, products and raw material of the British Empire, to be held in 1921. A large and influential meeting, held recently in London, and attended by the Premier, High Commissioners and three other representatives of the Overseas Dominions, and others interested in the scheme, passed a resolution that the exhibition, on the above lines, would be the best means of firmly binding together the peoples of the British Empire and restoring its commercial and financial supremacy. It has been decided that the exhibition shall be held under the auspices of the British Government and extensive preparations are being made, and to ensure complete representation, local committees have been formed in most of the large centers of industry. It is felt that the exhibition will offer an opportunity of demonstrating the magnitude of British resources, at a time when such a demonstration is most needed.

A Woman and a Throne.

Prince Charles of Roumania has renounced his right to the throne of that country. It was a case of giving up the woman of his choice or passing up the royal title, and he took the latter course. If this woman is right there can be no question but that the prince did the best thing possible under the circumstances. European thrones are none too secure these days, anyway, while the love of a good woman is the most certain and constant thing in the whole world.—Calgary Herald.

Cod Oil the Latest Fuel for Ships.

Newfoundland Steamer Had to Burn Oil Soaked Mattresses.

Boston, Sept. 18.—To complete the last 30 miles of her voyage from St. John's, Newfoundland, the steamer Neptune, under charter to the Nova Scotia Steamships, Ltd., was obliged to burn mattresses, fittings, etc., when her supply of coal became exhausted. The Neptune docked at Commercial wharf with a general freight. Eight casks of cod liver oil were used to saturate the material replacing the coal, and in this way steam was kept up so that the vessel could make port. On her last trip outward from here to Halifax and St. John's the Neptune broke down while off Cabot's Straits, and while repairs to her steering gear delayed the vessel 24 hours on her return trip.

These delays and the fact that the steamer was unable to maintain her regular rate of speed caused the coal supply to run out. The Neptune came through her trying experiences without damage.

Shoes From Fish Leather

A sample lot of leather made from the skins of fish, such as ray, shark, sturgeon, paddle-fish, and porpoise, has been received by the U. S. Bureau of Fisheries. It has also received articles made from such leathers, including men's, women's, and children's shoes, as well as a belt, wallet, portfolio, brief case, etc. The manufacturers have established stations on the South Atlantic and Gulf coasts where supplies of raw material are obtained, and are producing from such sources a very high grade of leather suitable for nearly every purpose for which leather is used.

That "Let Down Feeling" Past Strain.

Everyone gets tense and over some big things once in a while and realizes it when the strain comes and that "feeling" sets in.

But there are a great many people who let themselves get into a fool habit of being more or less all the time over all sorts of things and often over nothing and they don't realize their mistake because they never relax the strain they impose on themselves.

Some of these people strain their nerves so tense that they reach the breaking point—nervous prostration, words, not quite reach this point always on edge, always bold, nervous strength, always why they feel so mean and complish so much less than want to.

The first thing such people do to realize that they are tense is to make up their mind to relax.

Beating Eggs As If Her Head depended On It.
