The Great Scandal.

The developments of this morning in reference to this all-absorbing topic are the publication of a denial from Attorney General Oumet that he ever received the $6,000 stated by Mr. McMullen; and the issuing of the following manifesto in this morning's Mail and Leader: "We are authorized by the members of the Government referred to in the communications of Messrs. McMullen and Foster, published in the Montreal Herald and Toronto Globe of Friday, and in the Montreal Gazette of Saturday last, to state that in so far as any part of those communications, or of the documents published with them, tends or purports to implicate any member of the Government in any agreement, promise or understanding, to grant or to further the granting of the charter of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, or the contract for the building of that railway, as compensation for assistance to the late general elections or for pecuniary considerations of any kind, or upon any ground or for any reason inconsistent with their duty as members of the Government, those communications and documents are either absolutely and entirely false, or so expressed as to convey an absolutely false impression; that the arrangement referred to by the late Sir George Cartier in the published letter of the 24th August last was an arrangement personal to himself and Sir Hugh Allan, independent of, and, until published, unknown to the other members of the Government, and that it had no reference to the Canadian Pacific charter, or contract, or to the granting of furthering the granting of either of them; and that at the earliest possible moment the whole of the facts and circumstances will be laid before a tribunal competent to receive evidence respecting them under oath." This denial is in effect the same as what was stated at the time of Mr. Huntington's first making his serious charges against the Ministry, and consequently adds nothing new to the controversy. What the public want now, and what they will have, is evidence and facts, not merely shouts of "It's a lie!" The Ministry are kind enough to promise an investigation "under oath," and we suppose that the pressure of indignant popular opinion will now force on a rigid enquiry immediately, for nothing less will content the country.

"Slimy Adventure" is the Mail's latest pet name for Mr. McMullen.

The immediate assembling of Ministers is expected to take place.

The Reformers of Ottawa intend giving Mr. Huntington a grand public reception on his next arrival at the capital.

The inquest yesterday on Stephen Cox completely exculpated his companion from any suspicion of violence, and the evidence pointed to the probability that excessive drinking was the cause of death.

The publication of McMullen's statement, and the documents connected therewith, has created a profound sensation at Ottawa. Disgust, indignation, and shame is expressed by all parties.

The Spanish soldiers are beginning to vindicate their reputation for bravery and efficiency, which has sadly deteriorated of late. A telegram from a thoroughly reliable source states that they defeated a large force of Carlists, after a most obstinate and sanguinary resistance by the latter, at a town named Iquidana, in the province of Barcelona.

The Hamilton Times says:—"From the little information we have received from parties who know him personally, we are informed that the said G. W. McMullen has hitherto borne an excellent character, and comes of a good Canadian family, who formerly resided at Picton, Ontario; that a few years ago the family removed to Chicago, where they have remained since; that Mr. McMullen was connected with a newspaper there and those who knew him well say they have a strong belief that what he says is true. At all events, we are inclined to think McMullen's word will be as worthy of belief as the ex-Finance Minister, a man who was stigmatized by Sir John A. Macdonald as having been "steeped to the lips in corruption."

FORCE OF EVIDENCE.—The Mail and Leader continue to maintain the innocence of the Government, but the Montreal Gazette is not so hopeful. Its issue of Saturday it remarks:—"If the Government have explanations to offer of the extraordinary documents which are now before the public, the people of Canada will rejoice at the fact. They are entitled to a suspension of judgement until they have time to SELLING OFF ALL SUMMER GOODS AT LESS THAN COST PRICE.

The sale will commence on Saturday, July 5th, and will continue for one month in order to clear out all Summer Stock.

TREMENDOUS BARGAINS WILL BE GIVEN!

Our MR. CHANCE leaves for the British and Foreign Markets on Thursday to make purchases for the Fall and Winter Trade. Our Mr. Chance has had great experience in purchasing goods in Foreign Markets, thus making his 20th voyage across the Ocean, thereby giving him that experience which but few have, and certainly none in Guelph. The proprietors would inform the public that they are the only firm importing goods direct from the Manufacturers, Mr. Chance taking with him $50,000 in order to pay cash for every transaction.

The Largest and Best Assorted Stock of Dry Goods will be shown at the Golden Lion this Fall and Winter ever seen in Guelph. Don't Forget the Great Sale commencing on Saturday, July 5th, 1873. CHANCE & WILLIAMSON.

offer those explanations. But if there is no explanation to offer, if they cannot satisfy the public either that these telegrams and despatches never were sent or received by them, or there are circumstances connected with them which remove the impression which they have created upon the public mind, the country will demand their retirement from office as the just penalty for conduct which, if not criminal, was at least indiscreet and compromising."

FINANCIAL AND STOCKS.—The Monetary Times says:—"Money is decidedly easier, and the market is very quiet. In Montreal good business paper is readily discounted at 7 1/2%; weak paper is difficult to negotiate, as there is a disposition to scrutinize everything offered very closely. Stocks continue very weak. There is a good deal of anxiety to sell, and any real sales in consequence seem to exercise a further depressing effect on the market. The speculators have all lost heavily, presuming that they must sell out at current prices, and the crippling which must ensue may only be developed hereafter in suspensions. Large shipments of specie from New York to England are attracting some attention. During last week about three and a half millions were shipped, and there are no signs of abatement, the state of the exchanges rendering exportation very profitable."

IS ROWING HURFEL?—It has always been a disputed point amongst medical men whether the great rowing matches which for the last forty years have formed such a marked feature in the great English Universities, have upon the whole acted injuriously or beneficially, as regards the health of men engaged in them. This point may now be regarded as settled by the work just published, entitled "University Oars," the production of Dr. J. E. Morgan, who possesses the double qualification for his task that he is both a well known surgeon and at the same time an eminent oarsman. By laboriously seeking out the three hundred men who have taken part in the inter-University contests, and enquiring carefully as to the results of their rowing practice upon their health and strength, Dr. Morgan found that one hundred and fifteen declare themselves to be benefited by their work, one hundred and sixty two have remarked neither special injury nor special benefit, and seventeen have been clearly injured. Upon the whole, Dr. Morgan concludes that the proportion of men injured by rowing is extremely small, and that no other pastime would, if carefully examined in the same way, exhibit such a small per centage of injury to its votaries.—Canadian Monthly for July.

A PERSUIT AND A RESCUE.—Yesterday morning, as a steer was being driven along Queen-street, St. Catharines, it suddenly became enraged, and pursued a little boy named Thomas Hastings, who ran away, and in his endeavors to get away through a hole in a board fence which was too small, he stuck fast, and the animal began butting him, till a woman rushed out and pulled him through. The steer had finally to be shot and wounded before being got under control. The contract for the new car works and repair shops of the Great Western Railway has been awarded to Messrs. Christie & Green, of London.

The Young-st hotel, Aurora, has been burned. Insurance $1,200.

A boy named James Gordon was drowned in the Niagara River opposite Fort Erie at 9 o'clock on Thursday morning. At last accounts the body had not been recovered.

Six liquor stores at Montreal were on Saturday fined for selling liquor on Sunday.
