THE WILSON'S BUFFALO VISIT

Confronted by Mr. Davis of Bechester and Mr. Leavitt of Toronto, Mr. Wilson Denies Ever Having Made Any Statements to Them That He Was to Get $5,000 For His Evidence-Mr. Leavitt He Denied Ever Having Seen -Defence First Takes Up Bank Deposit Slip.

Toroxio, April 28.—Bittle progress was made in the Gamey investigation yesterday morning, and the court adjourned from 11.30 to 2.30 out of respect to the date Mr. Justice Lount.

r. Johnston-The notice directed to be served on the newspapers, my Lords, could not be served until this morning.

G. B. Wilson, father-in-law of G. B. Wilson, father-in-law of Frank Sullivan, was recalled. Examined by Mr. Ritchie he said he was in Rochester this month. He was there on Friday, the 10th of April. He recollected meeting a man whose name he did not know, and who went with him to the hotel. He never spoke to him after that. He had never mentioned to this man that they were having a great time in Ontario.

Q.—I am just trying to refresh your memory. That he asked you what it was about, and you said that a man in the Government had bought a member by the name of Gamey, and Gamey charged Stratton with the crime? A.—I never did. He did not know that the man who directed him to the hotel was Mr. Davis, and did not see him there at

Q.—Perhaps this may refresh your memory. Did you tell him that you knew all about the business, as your son-in-law, Frank Sullivan, had told you about it? A.—I never had told you about it? A.—I never had such a conversation.

Q.—Did you tell him that Frank Sullivan had come up to your place at Newmarket and told you that Stratton had bought up Gamey, and that the buying had been done through him? A.—I never had any such conversation.

Q.—Now, did you ever see an agreement signed by Gamey by which he agreed to support the present Government? A.—I never did, nor never knew Gamey's name until Q.-Did you tell Mr. Davis that Frank Sullivan had showed you the Frank Sullivan had showed you the agreement which Gamey had signed, in which he agreed to support Ross and the Reformers, in April? A.—I never told anything of the kind.

Q.—Neither on the 10th April nor any other day? A.—Nor any other day.

Q.—I am calling your attention to this, because I am instructed that Pavis will say that? A.—If he says it he says what I never told him.

Never, Never, Never. Q.—Perhaps this will refresh your memory; did you tell him that Frank Sullivan had to resign his job in the Parliament Buildings and that he came out to your house so as to Mrs. Hughson, of Chicago, whose letter follows, is another woman in high position who owes her health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"Money seemed but poor and pal-try compared to health, and yet a few dollars invested in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound few dollars invested in Lydia E. Pinklaam's Vegetable Compound brought me good health. I suffered for several years with general weakness and bearing-down pains, caused by womb trouble. My appetite was frightful, and I would lie awake for hours, and could not sleep, until I seemed more weary in the morning than when I retired. After reading one of its advertisements I decided to try the merits of Lydia E. Pinklann's Vegetable Compound, and I am so glad I did. No one can describe the good it did me. I took three bottles faithfully, and besides building up my general health, it drove all disease and poisen out of my body, and made me feel as spry and active as a young girl. Mrs. Pinkham's medicines are certainly all they are claimed to be."—Mns. M. E. Hughson, 347 E. Q.—And never said that Frank was to get five thousand dollars for swearing this matter through? A.—Never.

Q.-And did you not tell him that you were to get five hundred dollars to get out of the way to avoid giv-ing evidence? A.—Never; for I would

I did not tell him that I hadn't the agreement, nor that my wife, before she left Buffalo on the return trip, had got a memorandum in regard to paying five bundred dollars in case I kept away. I might have been at the National Hotel on the 16th or the 18th, I would not swear which.

Q.—Do you recollect seeing Mr. Leavitt of the City of Toronto, there, and Mr. Davis also? A.—I never saw them. Q.—On this occasion on the 18th

Q.—On this occasion on the 18th of April, or whatever day it was, at the National Hotel in Rochester, when Davis and Leavitt were there, did you say to them that if you did not get that five hundred dollars you were going back to give up the whole conspiracy and smash the Government? A.—I never told them; for I never held such a conversation with any centleman with any gentleman.

Q.—Did you on this occasion, in the presence of Leavitt, while he and Davis were together, make any of these statements similar to those 1

Q.—Nor anything to that effect?

A.—Nor anything to that effect.

Q.—Neither directly nor indirectly? A.—Never.
Q.—If they state that it is so, that is a labrication? A.—It is a fabrication.

Q.—Do you know a man by the name of Palmer, of Rochester? A.—I never met the name.
Q.—Perhaps I can refresh your memory, I am instructed that Mr. Palmer, the one I refer to, is the agent or manager of the express.

Get Money From Frank Sullivan. Q.-You recollect your son-in-law Frank Sumvan, being over there?

Q.—Staying two or three hours and then going away? A.—I do.
Q.—Soon after your son-in-law departed you went to Pennfield? A.—I intended going there anyway.

Q.—He says that Sullivan remained long enough there to give you some money; is that correct? A.—
That is correct.
Q.—And then Frank Sullivan took the sleeping car at one o'clock on Sunday morning for Toronto? A.— That is correct. Will you allow me to explain the money part of it?

Q.—If you wish it? A.—I wished my wife to send me some money, and she sent it by Mr. Sullivan in preference to sending it by mail, and he brought it.

Q.—It was five dollars, was it? A.

I think so.

The Chancellor—We had that before. Mr. Ritchie--It was necessary to have a special messenger for the five dollars, and Frank was the special messenger, Q.—You recollect the night that Frank left for Rochester? A.—I do.

Never Went to Palmer's Reem.

Never West to Palmer's Reem.

Q.—Do you recollect going to Mr.
Palmer's room that night in the National Hotel, or that morning, about two o'clock in the morning, and telling him about the interview that you had with your son-in-law, A.—I never went into his room.

Q.—Did you speak to him? A.—I say I did not speak to him. I might have spoke to him in the house at the table.

Q.—Were you up until one o'clock in the morning? A.—I was up until in the morning? A.—I was up until Mr. Sullivan left for Toronto, and then I went to my room and went to bed.

Q.—How long were you up after Sullivan left? A.—Probably twenty

Q.—Did you have any conversation from the time Sullivan left until you retired that morning? A.—I did

Q.-Not with anybody? A.-Not

Q.—Not with anybody? A.—Not anybody.
Q.—You did not tell Mr. Palmer on that night that Frank had come there to move you away, and you were going off, and that Frank said the Reformers were going to win? A.—I never, on oath, used such language in the city of Rochester.
Q.—Did you tell Palmer also that Frank had got an agreement from Gamey by which he was to support the Government, and he afterwards destroyed the agreement? A.—I never.

Q.—And you did not tell him that

Q.—And you did not tell him that you were to move away because you were to get five hundred dollars to keep out of the road? A.—I never did; I did not move.

Q.—But you did go to Pennfield?
A.—Yes, but I did not—
Q.—Did you also tell him that if the true facts of the conspiracy did not come out that your son-in-law Frank Sullivan, was to get five thousand dollars? A.—I never did; so help me God.

help me God.
Q.—Nothing of that kind? A.—I never conversed on the subject.
Q.—Stand up Mr. Davis. (Archibald C. Davis stands up.) Did you meet that man? A.—I met that gentleman in the City of Rochester, but never had any conversation with him on this subject.

Arcar C. Davis sworn.

By Mr. Ritchie—Where do you reside? A.—In Rochester, New York,
Q.—What is your business? A.—Insurance agent.
Q.—Do you know the last witness,
George B. Wilson? A.—I met him,
Q.—Where? A.—In Rochester.
Q.—How often? A.—Why, I met him—I would not be just prepared to say how many times—it may have been over half a dozen, half a dozen at the least.
Q.—Where did you first meet him? A.—I was going up West Main street—

street—
The Chancellor—Is this evidence

The Chancellor—Is this evidence concerning the last witness?

Mr. Ritchie—Yes, my Lord.

The Chancellor—You are going into a matter that I do not think we can touch. This is something, that can touch. This is something that Frank Sullivan told G. B. Wilson and G. B. Wilson told somehody else.

His Evidence No Use. After a lengthy discussion between Mr. Ritchie and the Chancellor as to the propriety of admitting evidence in contradiction of Mr. G. B. Wilson's evidence, the Chancellor rules, after referring to two leading English cases on the point, that this evidence is inadmissible.

dence is inadmissible. Mr. Leavitt Cannot Be Called. Mr. Leavitt Cannet Be Called.
Mr. Ritchie—That is the only purpose I have for calling Mr. Davis, so he may as well step out of the box. Mr. Leavitt was also here for the same purpose, and I presume I should not call him under your Lordship's approval.

The Chancellor—There was some other evidence you wanted to call.

Mrs. Wilson's Evidence.

Mrs. Wilson's Evidence. Mrs. George B. Wilson said that she left with her husband and her daughter, Mrs. Sullivan, for Buffalo on April 9, the day before Good Friday, Her daughter went out to Newmarket, their home, the day before and made arrangements for conveyance to drive them to the Metropolitan Railway on Yonge street. The following morning her daughter said they would take a trip to Buffalo. Her daughter had been speaking on a previous visit about a trip on Good Friday. Each paid their own expenses to Toronto, but her daughter bought the tickets for the here of them for Them. nesday before at a funeral. She did not see either him or Mr. Lloyd, the barrister in Buffalo.

In Buffalo.

Witness said they arrived in Buffa-fo about noon on Friday, and that with her husband she stayed at her daughter's the night before in To-ronto. They registered at the hotel right across from the station, and she stayed until the evening train and came home alone, her daughter seeing her off in Buffalo. She did not seeing her off in Bullato. She did not know when her daughter came back. She didn't ask either her husband or daughter when she might expect them back—they had no discussion about it. She had not heard from her daughter since.

Burned the Letter.

Q.—When did you next hear from your husband after this? A.—Well, I received a letter, but I cannot tell you the date.
Q.—Have you got that letter? A.—

Q.—What became of it? A.—I suppose it was burnt.
Q.—I see. Sensible woman, always burn the letters. How long after you had left him in Buffalo was it that you received this letter from him? A.—Oh, it would be about a week,

Frank Sullivan met her in Buffalo at the hotel, but the visit was quite unexpected. She did not know how Sullivan was aware they were at this hotel. Asked if Sullivan's visit was a surprise, she replied she never thought about it at all. She and her daughter were sitting in the window of the hotel after dinner, when her daughter saw Frank Sullivan getting on a car in front of the hotel, raised the window and called to Frank, who then came into the hotel. So far as she knew the meeting was not pre-arranged. He was in Buffalo when she left. She did not think she saw Frank since the visit to Buffalo. She had visited around some since she came back, and went home on hearing they wanted to serve her with a subpoe-

Never Saw Memo, to Pay Her Husband

Q.—Why, afraid if he got too much he might come back to Canada? A.
—He would come if he wanted to; he wanted to visit his old friends.
Mr. Johnston objected.
The Chancellor allowed the examination to go on.

The Chancellor allowed the examination to go on.

Mr. Ritchie—Q.—Did you ever offer him any money yourself? A.—No, I gave it to him to send.
Q.—Where was it that you gave Frank Sullivan this money? A.—In Buffalo.
Q.—Where? A.—At the hotel.
Q.—Where kind of bills did you give him? A.—There were Canadian bills, Ontario bills.
Q.—Ontario Bank bills? A.—I think so.

Many Ontario Bills.

Many Ontaric Bills.

Q.—They seem to be going around quite promiscuously—were they $5 bills? A.—Not all of them.

Q.—Had you at that time any idea how long your husband would stay away? A.—We told him to stay a month if he could.

Q.—You thought the investigation would take a month? A.—I did not think of the investigation.

Q.—You told him to stay a month? A.—Yes.

Q.—Was that agreed to between you? A.—Not particularly.

Q.—Was there any discussion about that? A.—No, I told him to stay a month if he could.

Q.—Didn't he also say that unless you sent money he would come back to Canada and expose the whole conspiracy? A.—No, I never heard that helore.

Q.—That he was not going to stay away—he might just as well have had 5,000? Λ .—No.

Money Was Rent Money.

Continuing, she said the money she sent her husband was part of $200 she received in the spring as rent for a farm she owned. The ten-ant who paid her farm rent was Mr. Terry of Kettleby.

A Complete Denial.

Q.—Will you undertake to pledge your oath that before leaving Buffalo you were not told that if you would go quietly away and your husband remain out of Canada you would be looked after and would get something? A.—Nothing of that kind was over mentioned.
