Western Members Try to Block C. P. R. Charter-Dates of Annual Training Camps for the Militia.

Northwest Territories occupied the greater part of the attention of the House of Commons today. The western members early in the afternoon made an unsuccessful effort to prevent the C.P.R. obtaining a charter to construct a new branch line in Manitoba until the company first built other branches for which it had obtained an extention of time because of its inability to complete them within the time specified in the charter. The debate upon the motion to go into committee upon the bill ratifying the agreement between the Province of Manitoba and the Canadian Northern Railway was still in progress at halfpast 1 o'clock, upon an amendment by Mr. Richardson referring the bill back to the legislature of Manitoba, an amendment by Mr. Puttee that it be sent back for the approval of the electors of Manitoba having been voted The premier intimated that the committee stage of the bill must be disposed of at this sitting, and the indications point to a prolonged sitting.
