farewell, 1905

Tomorrow will be the last day of this year-farewell, 1905.

Our business this year has grown immensely—in the last month or so at a really phenomenal rate. It shows that more and more people are recognizing that this is a Satisfactory Store -not in name only, but in reality. A store that can be relied upon at all times. A store that places before its clientele of particular customers a carefully selected stock of high-grude merchandise. A store where you receive full value for your money-very often bigger value than you would naturally expect. A store where you are treated courteously and honestly, and not forced to buy. Remember: you are welcome at all times at the Satisfactory Store-whether you desire to buy or just show a friend around.
