Miles south from Fullerton, where the real facts of the case are known, and where the Peltier party probably are at the present time safely at the Mounted Police post. The three surveyors of the Hudson Bay crowd who brought down the alarming report to Winnipeg have not been in a position to learn of the fate of the police party in the far north.

Peltier, with a party of six policemen, descended the Mackenzie River last spring to the Athabasca, and started to cross Northern Canada to Fullerton at the church, Mr. T. B. Missionary Banquets. Rev. G. H. Hazen, in speaking of the missionary banquets, showed how they might be used in promoting the spiritual and educational work of the church along missionary lines. Mr. Bates also spoke on the same subject. Rev. F. E. Malott discussed the holding of parlor conferences, in every church and Rev. Mr. Dewey and Mr I. Taylor dealt with the subject of the use of laymen at missionary dress to a very profitable evening. A resolution to the effect that the average of $7 per member be the amount the district aim at for this year rather than the $5 formerly, was unanimously carried.
