Life and Character Reading. JUNE 29. The greatest care on earth should be taken of children born under the sign governing this birthdate and their training and development should begin early in life. Their exceeding sensitiveness makes them hard to manage, although these hard to manage, although these little ones are very apt to be obliging and gentle if properly treated. Domestic happiness is possible to women of this date and under this sign if they have made a study of themselves and learn to govern their feelings. But the true talents of these people will be tested and will be best understood and observed by a single life.

The governing planet of this datis the Moon, which accounts for the capriciousness of these people. The governing sign is Cancer, the sign of the Crab, and the head sign of the Water Triplicity, and the birthstone is a black onlyx.
