CHICAGO Associated Press Despatch.
Chicago, Ill., Oct. 5.—Stormy weather in Canada, likely to delay threshing, had a stimulating effect on the wheat market today. A material upturn in values took place, helped also by favorable Liverpool advices. Reports were also current that Minneapolis mills have enough orders on hands to keep the mills running for months. Opening prices, 5%c to 13%c higher, new style, were followed soon by moderate further gains. ther gains.

Corn and oats sympathized with wheat strength. After opening 1/6c to 1/8c up the corn market underwent something of a reaction, but then rose higher than before. Oats started at 1/4c to 1/8c to 1/2c advance, and held near to initial figures.
