

Sharkey A "Has Been"

ailor Pugilist Told to "Go Way Back and Sit Down" By Munroe.

ets Badly Worsted in Six Round Bout Last Night With Butte Miner.

ould Not Stand Stomach Blows and Constantly Lo His Temper.

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 27.—Jack Munroe outboxed Tom Sharkey in a six-round bout at the Second Regiment armory in this city last night. Sharkey stepped from the ring with a mark, while both of Sharkey's eyes right and left swung of the side. Sharkey has an advantage in the shoulder and was hard on the stomach. After this the battle was most wholly in Munroe's favor. Sharkey became wild and nearly all of his leads went round a neck. In the fifth round Munroe's blows landed in great numbers on Sharkey's stomach straight to the shoulder and were hard. Opinion here seems to be that Sharkey will be called upon to defend his championship against Tom Munroe.

THE PRELIMINARY

Sharkey and Munroe reached here in the afternoon, the former going to the Scott House and the latter to the Bohemian House. Sharkey was accompanied by his manager, H. Buckley, and his second, Ed McKeay. Munroe's manager, J. J. Fitzgerald, and his second, Ed McKeay, were also present. Sharkey and Munroe were both in the ring at 10 o'clock. He was given a tremendous fight by the great Scot. Sharkey did not enter the ring until minutes later. The referee called the center of the ring and gave them instructions. STATUS OF THE PANAMA CANAL

Nothing in Way of Transference of Concession to United States.

Paris, March 2.—The officials of the United States embassy share the view of the officers of the canal company that there is nothing now in the way of the actual transference of the concession of the canal to the United States. At a recent conference between Ambassador Porter and President Bo, of the canal company, the president pointed out that the concession is now pending, one involving Colombia's right to hold shares and the other the general question of the company's right to transfer its concession to the United States. It is further pointed out that the concession is now pending, one involving Colombia's right to hold shares and the other the general question of the company's right to transfer its concession to the United States.

Nova Vremya Bitterly Angry at Anglo-Saxon Sympathy For Japs.

St. Petersburg, March 2.—According to a special despatch from Port Arthur, twenty Chinese have been arrested there for signalling to the Japanese ships from the shore with flashlight and lanterns. A warning has been issued that similar offenders will hereafter be treated as spies and shot.

Although it is denied that the present plans of the admiralty contemplate the despatch of the Black Sea or Baltic fleets to the Far East, it is reported that the fleet is being prepared with haste to meet any emergency. General Altkorn, chief of staff, and Admiral Rozhanski, chief of the fleet, are inspecting the fleet in the Black Sea.

Work on the fleet is being pushed night and day. The battleship Borodino, the battleship Orel and the transport Krutshchik are being repaired at the admiralty dock yards here.

The Nova Vremya today prints an editorial in which it expresses its regret at the news of Japanese victories, in which it says "the whole world with those exceptions, realize that the Russian occupation of Manchuria would benefit civilization."

A despatch from Vladivostok, dated today, says that according to private information received from the admiralty, 800 men each recently landed at Ching Chuan, Korea, about 120 miles north of the mouth of the Yalu, with the supposed object of reaching the valley of the Yalu river and threatening the communications of the Japanese warships was a Russian fleet on the horizon of Vladivostok. They were believed to be the Russian fleet, now powerful enough to blockade Vladivostok or endanger the Russian fleet's communications with the sea.

EMBELLIZER IN TOLLS.

Boston, Mass., March 2.—A warrant charging Wallace P. Ham with the embezzlement of $104,000 from the American Star Company, which he was Boston manager. He was also treasurer of St. Luke's hospital.

PREPARED FOR WAR.

On January 25th a formal order to prepare for war was given by Admiral Alexieff to the forces in the vicinity of the Yalu. On January 25th the military officer commanding the forces in the vicinity of the Yalu, and the commander of the forces in the vicinity of the Yalu, and the commander of the forces in the vicinity of the Yalu.

INTENTIONS APPARENT.

"In view of the facts, who can see that Russia had no warlike intentions or that she was unprepared for war? Seeing that the situation had become so critical that it admitted of no further delay, the Japanese government was compelled to break off negotiations that had proved abortive, and to take the necessary steps for self-protection. But the responsibility for the challenge of war rests not with Japan, but solely with Russia. On the 6th of February Japan announced to Russia her determination to end negotiations and take up independent action, as she might deem best to defend her position, and to take up independent action, as she might deem best to defend her position, and to take up independent action, as she might deem best to defend her position.

WARING GIVEN.

"At the same time the government of Japan informed the Russian government that, as its moderate and unselfish proposals in the interests of a firm and lasting peace in the Far East had not received the consideration which was their due, Japan resolved to end her diplomatic relations with Russia, which, for the reason named, she withdrew her legation. The term 'independent action' naturally implied the opening of hostilities. The fact that Russia was unable to understand it in that light, is of course no reason why Japan should be held responsible for the misinterpretation made by Russia. It is the most unambiguous opinion of international jurists that a declaration of war is not an independent act, but a consequence of the opening of hostilities. Indeed, it has been the common practice in recent years to issue a formal declaration of war only after the commencement of hostilities. The Russian force at Port Arthur was not a separate force, but a part of the Russian fleet.

RUSSIAN ADVANCE.

It has been learned that the Russians have occupied the telegraph office at Anju and Tong Pyon, north of Ping Yang. They have imprisoned the telegraph operators and have confiscated the official papers. The Russian force at Port Arthur was not a separate force, but a part of the Russian fleet.

Japs Cut Railway Behind Vladivostock

One Mile and Quarter of Branch Line of Trans-Siberian Line Destroyed and Northern Seaport Isolated.

St. Petersburg, March 3.—The War Office has given out what purports to be a summary of an official telegram from the Japanese government. It states that the Japanese have cut the railway line connecting Vladivostok and Harbin at a point outside of Min-Guma, a town midway between the two terminals. The Japanese agents who performed this feat also removed the telegraph wire along the line, thus effectively isolating Vladivostok.

CRUISE RETURN.

Port Said, March 2.—The Russian cruiser Aurora, recently in the Red Sea, left here this afternoon for Russia. The main Russian force is concentrated at Vladivostok. The Japanese have cut the railway line connecting Vladivostok and Harbin at a point outside of Min-Guma, a town midway between the two terminals. The Japanese agents who performed this feat also removed the telegraph wire along the line, thus effectively isolating Vladivostok.

RUSSIAN SAD FLIGHT.

New York, March 2.—Reports received here say a cable to the World from St. Petersburg, from the troops along the route to Harbin, show a disheartening condition of affairs. Disease is rife among the soldiers. A smallpox epidemic is raging in East Siberia, and has spread among the recruits, vaccination being unheard of in the army. Pneumonia and bronchitis are claiming many, and already thousands of men have been ready to desert for service by frost bites. The worst portion of the journey is across Lake Baikal.

GENERAL VIEW OF THE FORTIFICATIONS AT PORT ARTHUR.

Secretary Hoki was one of the Japanese commissioners who drew up the treaty between China and Japan at Shanghai last fall, which, like the American treaty with China, provided for the opening of the ports of Mukden, Aitung and Kungming. "On many points the Japanese government and the United States have agreed," said the diplomat. "They are united on the open door policy and the integrity of China. Japan and the United States would suffer most from the acquisition of parts of China by Russia. The Russian policy in Manchuria seems to be to exclude all other nations. The impression among my people is that the government did not go to war quickly enough. They clamored for long before hostilities began. The people will do all in their power to support the government. Even the school children are trying to provide funds to carry on the war."

PORT ARTHUR DOOMED.

New York, March 2.—The position of the Russians at Port Arthur, says a cable to the World from Berlin, is desperate. The Russian force at Port Arthur was not a separate force, but a part of the Russian fleet.

ANTICIPATING RESULTS. What Will Likely Follow Result of Russo-Japanese War.

Paris, March 1.—In anticipation of the Russo-Japanese war, the European nations are turning their attention to the Pacific. It is feared that Japan, if victorious, will find that she cannot live on the Pacific. Her resources are limited, and she will be unable to maintain a large fleet. The Japanese government is expected to agree to greater Japanese control over the Pacific. The Russian government is expected to agree to greater Russian control over the Pacific.

PUZZLED OVER SAN DOMINGO

All Reports to United States Indicate Approaching Anarchy.

Washington, March 2.—The administration is puzzled to know how to deal with San Domingo. Every report that comes from the island indicates approaching anarchy. If there were a capable government, either regular or revolutionary, the United States would not be troubled. The United States would not be troubled. The United States would not be troubled.

CCZAR WAS OVERCOME.

Berlin, March 1.—The Schlesiische Zeitung publishes a statement said to have been received from court circles in St. Petersburg, that the Czar was allied with emotion at the friendly spirit shown in Emperor William's recent letter to him on the war in the Far East, and that when he read it he was overcome.

TIERED MOTHERS.

It's hard work to take care of children and to cook, sweep, wash, sew and mend besides. It makes a shop of the home—a shop, too, where the mother has to stand and yet there is much working overtime. Hoof's Sarsaparilla helps tired mothers in many ways—it refreshes the blood, improves the appetite, and assures restful sleep.
