THE CITY PLUNDERED.

The Troops Get Away Under the Flag of Truce. NTENSE EXCITEMENT AT LONDON

Admiral Seymour held Ac countable by Many.

NSTRUCTIONS TO THE ADMIRAL

The Egyptians used the flag of truce to withdraw from the town. The telegraph ship Chiltern is crowded with survivors who fought their way to the beach, from whence boats of the fleet removed them. They report having passed a drealful night, defending themselves desperately. Hundreds of Europeans and other Christians in the Ottoman bank and adjoining building were massacred. A part of the fleet is now leaving for Port Said. The

The whole of the Grand square is burned.
The Helicon, which went to discover the meaning of the last flag of truce last evening, could discover nobody on the Egyptian vessel Mahroussa, or in the arsenal." A correspondent accompanied the officer to the

An incendiary fire in the centre of the partly burned by the bombardment. An incendiary fire in the centre of the European quarter at 11.15 a.m. covered a mile square. A large portion of the population fled toward the canal. It is stated that the bulk of the Egyptian army is at Rosetta, forty miles north-east of Alexandria, and at Damanhour, thirty-eight miles south-east of Alexandria. The soldiers joined in looting the city before leaving it. The fire of the Invincible was very effective against Ras-el-Tin Fort. DISGRACEFUL TACTICS.

LONDON, July 13—Admiral Seymour telegraphs at 10.40 this morning: "Our terms were the suremeder of the forts as at first demanded. The tother the forts as at first demanded. The use made of the flag of truce by the Egyptians is considered disgraceful. Nothing is known of the khedive, but it is believed he is still at Ramleh galace, where his yachat is, apparently waiting until the weather will allow his embarkation.

ARABI MARCHING ON CAIRO.

ALEXANDRIA, July 13, 2 p.m.—The Chiltern has moved into the harbor. The fire in the city is steadily increasing. It is reported that Arabi Pasha is marching on Cairo. The coastguard is ordered to remain aboard the reserve squadren. The men of the reserve take the duties of the coastguard on shore.

London, July 13.—There is terrible excitement mingled with doubt and fear as to the fate of the christians and Europeans who were in Alexandria when the bombardment commenced. Of these no single trace can be found, though there is good grounds for believing that there were hundreds if not thousands of them in the city.

Whether they have been CARRIED OFF AS HOSTAGES or whether they have been of strategy comparable only with Arabi's cunning in safely evacuating Alexandria under cover of a flag of truce. For the successful carrying out of this piece of knavery, as well as for the disappearance of the christians and Europeans, Admiral Seymour is held accountable by the English people. THE DUKE OF CONNAUGHT.

LONDON, July 13.—The Times says it is understood that in the event of hostilities with Egypt the Duke of Connaught will volunteer his services, and it is probable that if a force is sent on the will be given command of four infantry brigades.

GAMBETTA ON THE SITUATION.

PARIS, July 13.—It has been announced that Gambetta will, during the debate on the naval credits, deliver a great speech upon the general policy of leaving the past out of the question, and addressing himself to the chamber, to France and to Europe, and show the policy which events have marked out for france.

DOUBTS AND FEARS.

ALEXANDRIA, July 13—The troops of Arabi who have gone to Rosetta could have but one object, the destruction of the Suez canal, which is but a short distance away. ALEXANDRIA, July 13.—The khedive and Dervisch Pasha left Ramleh this afternoon and drove through Alexandria with

The News' Alexandria special says: The refugees are chiefly Greeks and Italians; there is only one Englishman. The soldiers and mob, joined by hundreds of women SACKED EVERY SHOP and entered the houses of Europeans and murdered the inmates. The marines who landed took rations for a day. The party detailed for spiking guns landed at Fort Kubebe and dismantled a number of large smooth bore pieces. Seymour wished to land marines to take possession of Fort Napoleon and march to Cumeldik, but learning that Fort Napoleon was mined and a large bedy of soldiers was stationed at Cumeldik proceedings were postponed.

INTERUTIONS TO THE ADMIRAL.

LONDON, July 13.—In the house of commons the financial secretary of war read instructions to Admiral Seymour which were that as the opposition of the forts had ceased he should not dismantle them or disable the guns. He should open friendly communications with the khedive, and in the absence of the native authorities from Alexandria, land seamen or mariners for police purposes and he should inform foreign commanders of these measures. The admiral was further instructed to invite the khedive to assert his authority in restoring order. The landing of a British force for police purposes was to be in concert with the khedive or anyother native authority in Alexandria and any of the European men of war were to be invited to co-operate. Protests were made by the conservatives against the feebleness of these instructions.

EXCITEMENT IN LONDON.

London, July 13.—The newspaper offices in Fleet street are besieged for special editions with Egyptian news. The excitement is remarkable.

SUPPLIES FOR THE FORCES.

The authorities are chartering a number of vessels to convey manitions of war to Alexandria. Five thousand mules have been purchased in Spain. Egyptian unified stock has declined three per cent to-day.

PREPARING FOR MORE WAE.

London, July 13.—Two batteries of field artillery at Portsmouth have been ordered to equip for embarkation.

Statements are published showing that the government is making arrangements to lay a temporary railway for the conveyance of troops into the interior of Egypt should it become necessary.

PORTSMOUTH, July 13.—The troopship Assistance has sailed for Ireland to take aboard a strong detachment of mariners. It is supposed they will be sent to Egypt.

WHAT THE CONFERENCE WILL BO. PROCEEDINGS IN PARLIAMENT.

LONDON, July 13.—Gladstone, replying to a question, said that that the government had not yet been informed where Arabi Pasha was. Northcote asked why the government had not done something to prevent the terrible eyents in Alexandria. Gladstone replied that the government could not have anticipated them. In the house of lords this evening Granville stated that if the fleet at Alexandria required the assistance of troops they would be sent. There was no reason to believe any of the great powers regarded the bombarding of Alexandria as other than an act of self-defence.

But though Mr. Nelson is master of the situation, it is as as a trustee: there is a second George Brown growing up and his father probably charged the uncle to keep his interest intact till such time and his father probably charged the uncle to keep his interest intact till such time as the son grew up. If this is the case Mr. Nelson will act with much caution, and this is perhaps just wherein Mr. Gordon Brown has his grip. London, July 13.—The Masonic grand lodge of Canada was engaged all morning in a discussion concerning the suspension of members of blue lodges for the non-payment of dues. It was finally hoisted over to the next session of the Grand lodge. Considerable discussion also ensued in the matter of the amounts voted to the family of the late Grand Master Wilson, also in reference to some other grants of a similar character. It was agreed that all special grants for benevolence already passed and to be passed by the Grand lodge be referred to the committee on benevolence to report them with a view to their rejection or adoption. The following is the list of grand officers elected; Grand master, Daniel Spry, Barrie; deputy grand master, Hugh Murray, Hamilton; senior warden, W. T. Bray, Wingham; secretary. J. J.
