BRITISH CABINET COUNCIL

SIXTH YEAR.

FRENCH PROPOSALS REGARDING EGYPT MUST BE MODIFIED.

England Cannot Allow Any Dual or Multiple Control of the Country -Opinion of the Daily News.

London, Jan. 20.—The cabinet were in session four hours to day. Another council will be held to-morrow to finally decide on the points at issue between England and the powers regarding the future management of Egyptian affairs. The Daily News says it England and the points at issue between England and the powers regarding the the future management of Egyptian affairs. The Daily News says it believes the cabinet is inclined to the opinion that the French proposals must be modified to be admissable as a basis for further negotiations. The News adds: "It is of vital interest to England to sattle the Egyptian question. England to settle the Egyptian question on her own responsibility. She cannot allow any dual or multiple control of Egypt."

IN FAVOR OF FEDERATION. The English Tory Leader's Idea of the

LONDON, Jan. 20 .- Sir Stafford Northcote addressed a large meeting at Barnstaple last evening. He declared himself unreservedly in favor of the federation of all the colonies of Great Britain and the establishment of a central colonial council. He declared that England's colonies in various parts of the world furnished the best field for the employment of the surplus labor of England. He advised emigration: British colonies as a remedy for all the evil complained of at home. He warned the country to have read the cape. warned the country to beware of the cap-tivating demagogic language of men like Henry George, whose doctrines were falacious and certain to bring misery on

> The present meeting of this branch would have the pleasure of reviewing a period unparalleled in the history of our eause in the matter of agitation and accomplished work. Early in the year an announcement was issued by the dominion council of the alliance in which was embodied a call for an immediate advance upon the line of Scott act agitation. The convention of the Ontario branch held on March 25 warmly endorsed this proposed policy, and arrangements were made for a prompt and energetic campaign. Before preparations had been completed for the submission of the Scott act in the different counties selected; the liquor party managed to precipitate a repeal vote in Halton, but their most desperate efforts utterly failed, and Ontario's banner county sustained the Scott act by a majority of more than double that by which it was first secured. This advantage was followed up, and in 1884, besides the struggle in Halton, there were thirteen in other counties in this province; out of these ten were carried. The smallest majority in any case was 602; the largest majority of the anti-Scott act party, 194; and the aggregate vote in fourteen counties in favor of the act, 43,355; against the act, 32,967; total majority for the act, 10,693.
