

The Weekly Monitor.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 23, 1895.

This decision given last week by the judges of the Supreme Court of Canada, on the prohibition question, is just about what was expected. Three of these judges hold to the opinion that a prohibitory law must come from the Dominion parliament...

Edward Outer Cowling, Judge of Probate for Annapolis county for the last thirty years, passed quietly away at Annapolis on Monday morning last at 9 o'clock...

The railway dining hall at Annapolis has been made strikingly attractive during the past few days, and now presents an interior appearance which reflects great credit on the skilled artists, Messrs. Bishop and McKay...

On Sunday morning last at 9 o'clock, Mr. John McLean, one of the oldest and best known residents of Annapolis, passed to his rest at the advanced age of 83 years...

The organization of Royal Templars of Temperance formed in this town on the 21st of October, 1894, have been meeting regularly every week since that date in the vestry of the Methodist Church...

Last Wednesday evening a few of the most intimate friends of Mr. and Mrs. William Hartshorn were invited to meet at the residence of their daughter, Mrs. H. A. Tate, Middleton, for the purpose of celebrating the forty-third anniversary of the marriage of the couple...

The parlor musicals given at the residence of Dr. DeLott, on Thursday evening last, under the auspices of St. James church, was a pronounced success. A large attendance was present, and the somewhat lengthy though varied programme was listened to attentively and appreciatively from the beginning to the close...

This talented young lady, whose "Travel Talks" have been so highly commended by the press of the province for the last few weeks by her Lawrentidean audience with her entertainment in Whitman's Hall, on Friday evening, Feb. 1st, is following it from the TRUZY NEWS.

Make your hens lay by feeding Herbage. Sold by H. R. Shaw. 43 1/2

The provincial legislature has been summoned to meet on January 31. The legislature of New Brunswick is to meet on the same day.

Wanted immediately. Agents to sell the "Universal Garment" Nova Scotia and in P.E.I. After first sale in section agents are canvassed by customers. This is a perfect system of sale measurement and can be learned by some in a single lesson.

Notice. Tenders will be received at the office of the Clerk of the Municipality of the County of Annapolis, up to noon on Saturday, the 19th day of January, A.D. 1895, for supplying 80 cords of Good Merchantable HARD WOOD.

Illegal Hunting in Close Season. We would respectfully suggest to all those who have been persistently hunting moose and caribou during the open season that the time for legally killing these animals has drawn to a close, but that the season with the sport they have enjoyed during the ample time that the law allows for hunting, should not cease hunting or shooting in any way.

Humorous Lecturer Coming. W. O. Fuller, junr., of the Rockland (Maine) Press, whose success as a humorous lecturer has been phenomenal, will shortly make a tour of the province. His subject is "Banking in Kansas, while counting, and How it Lets Me," being an account of experiences which he had while lecturing in a season for the purpose of "getting rich."

New Packet for Port Lorne. Capt. Freeman Beardsley and Capt. W. Templeman returned from Dixy last week, whether they had been for the purpose of purchasing a suitable schooner for the packet between Port Lorne, Hampton, and St. John. The new packet bears the name of the late Rev. John Snow, the vessel was bought of Capt. John Snow.

Coasting Injuries Proved Fatal. Reginald, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Wade, of Bear River, met with an accident on Tuesday last, while coasting, which resulted in his death on Thursday evening, about five o'clock. His parents have the deep sympathy of the community in this severe affliction.

Wedding Bell. John E. Morse, a native and former resident of Paradise, and son of the late Samuel Morse, of that place, but who for a number of years past has been known as a successful wholesale tea merchant in the city of Halifax, was married in New York Friday last to Miss Adelaide, daughter of Mr. Morse, an English lady, and was a visitor in Halifax recently.
