

geon, it is positively clear that we are all right : for there can be no philosophical reason assigned why the idea of one of us should have preference over that of the other."

Uncle. "My eyes!—well, Kate—well, Bobby!—this is a judgment upon me, as you say. But I am a man of my word—mark that! you shall have her, boy (plum and all), when you please. Done up, by Jove! Three Sundays all in a row. I'll go, and take Dubble L. Dee's opinion upon that."
