FARMING

Makes a Generous Proposal to all Subscribers

HAVE you realized how much there is in our premium proposals for the closing weeks of the present century? It will be profitable to read the story with care.

A good watch costs money, but we put you in the way of getting one without money—just a little exertion on your part, or with less effort you can get a watch not so good—or, again, a reading glass, or bible, or cook book—whilst only one new subscription sent by a present subscriber is needed to entitle him, free of any other charge, to a copy of our new book, “Life of Christ for the Young,” by Geo. L. Weed.

Just give yourself time to read about these things. Others are doing it and acting and getting something.

DOLLAR BOOK FREE

“The Life of Christ for the Young,” by Geo. L. Weed, is a book of about 400 pages, with 75 full-page half-tone illustrations that add very much to its attractiveness. We think ourselves it is one of the most complete books of the kind that has been published in many years. The author is peculiarly well fitted to write such a book, possessing a grace of style that makes it interesting to all children. He writes from knowledge of the Holy Land, having personally visited there and gathered data and observed for himself. The illustrations are so numerous that they bring out the most important features of the text in a manner not often done in books of this character.

It is bound in handsome cloth, with embossed front cover. Publishers' price $1.00

—This book will be mailed post-paid to any present subscriber sending one new yearly subscription.

Present subscribers to FARMING (not in arrears) may receive a copy post-paid on receipt of 50c., half publisher's price.
