

Divisions had allowed to continue as long without the exercise of discipline, as possibly consistent with justice.

The receipts for the quarter ending 30th June, was £553 5s. 9d., the benefits paid, £213 18s. 9d.; the per centage, £28 9s. 4d.; and the whole amount of funds on hand in the 62 Divisions reported from, £2208 17s 9d.

The Grand Scribe would most respectfully congratulate the Grand Division on the present elevated position of the Order, not only as regards their financial affairs, but in the high estimation in which the Order continues to be held by every sober-minded, reasonable man, woman, and child throughout the land, wherever it is known, and in the daily increase of a most powerful influence—not the least visible in the strenuous efforts made by our opponents to counteract the effects of our labors, which has proved so seriously to effect the mercenary spirits engaged in the liquor traffic.

There have been 8 new Divisions opened during the last quarter, and we do most confidently trust, that our brethren, who have already effected so much, will not relax in the labors of love, of mercy, and benevolence, until the whole Province shall become one great field—a grand theatre of Temperance—and every village, town, and city be represented, not only in this Grand Division, but in the halls of Legislation by the most powerful advocates of our Temperance cause.

All which is most respectfully submitted in the spirit of L. P. & F.

E. G. W. GREENWOOD.
