

MAY, 1895.

VOL. IX, No. 2.

THE OTTAWA NATURALIST.

Published by the Ottawa Field-Naturalists' Club.

CONTENTS.

	PAGE
1. On Some Dykes Containing Huronite—By A. E. Barlow, M.A., F.G.S.A. ....	25
2. Hunting the Barren Ground Caribou—By Frank H. Russell ....	48
3. Town Birds—By W. A. D. Lees ....	52
4. James Dwight Dana—Obituary Notice ....	55
5. Notes, Reviews and Comments: I. Geology —BAILEY on South Western Nova Scotia ; MATHEW on "Early Protozoa;" WINCHELL—"The Stratigraphic base of the Taconic or Lower Cambrian;" TAYLOR—"The Second Lake Algonquin;" GIBBY—"The Develop- ment of the Corallum of Favosites Forbesi, Var. occidentalis"; Geology of Aylmer, Que. Zoology —RITTER on "The Tunicata of the Pacific Coast of North America;" VERRILL— "The Distribution of the Echinoderms of North Eastern America ....	56
6. Club Notes—Annual Meeting; Excursions; Fees; The Term "Ottawa District; Camera Club, etc. ....	61
7. Frequency of the Different Winds, Etc., for Ottawa, 1894 ....	63
8. Meteorological Observations for Ottawa ....	64

OTTAWA, CANADA.

PRINTED AT THE OFFICE OF PAYNTER & ABBOTT,
48 RIDEAU STREET.

Entered at the Ottawa Post Office as second-class matter

 Excursion to Chelsea, Saturday, May 18th, 1.30 P.M. See Notice, p. 61.