

the success of the club last year ; first, a ground has been fitted up at the rear of the college, which, though not so large as that prescribed by the Association, nevertheless suited well the purpose designed. Second, the club was divided into five groups, between which a series of matches was arranged to decide what group should hold the college championship.

The hopes of the proposers of the scheme were more than realized. Each player found himself a member of a foot-ball team, and as he felt the responsibility of his position his skill and interest in the game increased accordingly. November rains flooded the campus before the championship could be decided, but not before the success of the scheme was assured. At the annual meeting the following committee was elected for 1886-7 :—President, D. G. McQueen ; Vice-Président, J. J. Elliott ; Sec.-Treasurer, R. M. Hamilton ; Curator, J. A. McMillan ; Councillor, P. J. McLaren.
