Commercial Summary.

IN order to avoid possible misunderstandings, advertisers and subscribers of the JOURNAL OF COMMERCE should invariably make remittances to head-quarters, this city.

VANADIUM, a white metal discovered in 1830,
is reported to be worth $10,000 a pound.

Mr. R. C. Scott, of the Merchants Bank branch, Quebec, has been transferred to the Renfrew office as manager.

ONE of the largest fruit canneries of the continent is about to be established at Portland, Oregon, costing from $20,000 to $30,000.

LABELLE & Fils, boots and shoes, city, have assigned to Geo. Daveluy; liabilities estimated at $1,000, with assets of about same amount.

THE Vanceboro Wooden Ware Company,
Bangor, Me., received from Australia, April 2, an order for four car loads, or 5,000 boxes, of genuine Yankee clothes-pins.

THE fares to commercial travellers over the C.P.R. have been reduced to 3 cents per mile, to points East of Calgary and West of Port Arthur, with the usual baggage allowance.

PIERRE Bourgeois, hay dealer, Napierville, Que., held a meeting of creditors on the 15th inst., and acknowledged his inability to continue meeting his engagements in full, which amount to about $25,000.

PERSEVERANCE has found its reward in the case of the Stronach Lumber Company, Manistee, Mich., which, after working over five months on its salt well, struck salt-rock quite late at the depth of 1,950 feet.
