

BOOK NOTICES, &c.

HALF HOURS IN FIELD AND FOREST, by J. G. Wood, being a series of chapters in Natural History, with promise illustrations, will be issued shortly, by Thomas Whittaker, New York.

The same publisher has just published "Expositions," by Dr. Samuel Cox, author of "Salvator mundi," and "Simple Lessons for Home Use," in four parts. In the last named, vital questions are treated by specialists. Mr. Whittaker will issue his new "Clergyman's Companion" on or about October 14th. The personality of the compiler is to be withheld. He is a parish priest in a large city. About the same time another edition of De-ville's "Pocket Parochial Register" will be ready. The Rev. Geo. C. Foley's "Catechism on the Christian Year," is in Mr. Whittaker's hands for immediate publication.

FOUR CENTURIES OF SILENCE, or from Malachi to Christ, by the Rev. R. A. Redford, M.A., LL.B., (Prof. of Systematic Theology and Apologetics, New College, London.) James Nisbet & Co., London; S. R. Briggs, Toronto, $1.50.

Too little attention says the author has been given by the students of Revelation to the deeply interesting subjects briefly sketched by him, and in the belief that a deeper study of the state of the Jewish Church during the long period intervening between the old and New Testaments will do much to promote the cause of Truth, the author originally wrote these chapters for the Homiletic Magazine, and has republished them in book form. The work is one which will be read with interest and forms "a worthy contribution to the science of religion."

ZECHARIAH'S VISIONS AND WARNINGS, by the late Rev. W. Lindsay Alexander, D.D., LL.D., F.R.S.E. (S. R. Briggs, Toronto; crown, 8vo; $1.50.

We have here a learned and valuable treatise upon a subject of deep interest by one apparently well qualified to discuss it. The papers—twenty-four in number—comprised in this volume, are scholarly and suggestive in character, and "will make says one writing in regard to them; "the study of one of the minor prophets an increasing joy to many a minister."

OUR LITTLE ONES AND THE NURSERY—Thos. Nelson & Sons, London; The Russell Publishing Co., 35 Bromfield street, Boston, Mass.; $1.50 per an; 15c. each.

The November number, the first of vol. vi., of this charming and ever attractive magazine for the young comes to hand early, full of pretty pictures and with ever so many nice stories. It would be difficult we think to find a more attractive magazine for little children.

CANADIAN LIVE-STOCK JOURNAL—There have been few more marked successes in journalism than has been achieved by the Canadian Live Stock Journal, of Hamilton, Ont. Started less than two years ago as a 20-page monthly, it has gone on steadily increasing in matter and interest, as well as in size, first to 24, then to 28, and finally to 32 pages. Though devoted especially to stock-raising, it includes The Farm, The Dairy, The Apiary, Poultry, Horticulture and The Home, so that for the general farmer or such farmers as make live-stock breeding in any of its departments a leading feature of their business, we do not know where to find its equal in Canada. We heartily recommend it to our patrons as the leading paper of its class in the Dominion. It is published at Hamilton, Ont., by The Stock Journal Co. Price $1 per annum. Those subscribing now for 1886 get the remainder of 1885 free. We can furnish it and our own paper together from now to end of 1886 for $2.00. Call at our office and examine it, or send to the publishers for a free specimen copy.

Faith is likened to an anchor because it has a holding power; and that comes from the hold which God has upon the man who exercises it.
