

Supplementary Readings in Canadian History.

THE EDUCATIONAL REVIEW series of Leaflets on Canadian History has been planned with the special object of giving detailed accounts of the leading events and persons in Canadian history. The series will present from historians of the past and from original documents valuable records that are inaccessible to students and schools with limited library privileges. The passages from original authorities will be selected with a view to excite the interest and pique the curiosity of the general reader as well as the students of our schools, and stimulate them to further research in the sources of our surpassingly rich collection of historical material. Leading historical writers in all parts of Canada, and some in the United States, have promised their assistance, and the result will be that nearly one hundred different topics will be presented in this series, dealing in a simple and interesting manner with the most picturesque and important events of our history. The result will be of incalculable benefit to the readers of Canadian history, awakening an enthusiasm and love of country that dry textbooks and memoriter lessons can never arouse.

The Leaflets, of about thirty pages each, will be issued quarterly until the series of twelve numbers is completed.

The subscription price for the series is ONE DOLLAR. Single numbers Ten Cents. To encourage their use for supplementary reading in schools, Ten or more will be sent to one address at Five cents each.

Address EDUCATIONAL REVIEW,
ST. JOHN, N. B.

The topics dealt with in the first two numbers of the Leaflets are: The Physical Growth of Canada; The Legend of Glooscap; Cartier's First Voyage; Winter at St. Croix Island; The Story of Lady La Tour; The Story of the Loyalists; The Cabots and their Voyages; The Settlement of Port Royal; The Physiography of Nova Scotia; An Acadian Marchioness; A Chapter on Names; The Fort Cumberland Summons and Reply; The Siege of Penobscot.

R. E. GOSNELL, Librarian Legislative Library, B. C.: I must congratulate you, not on the conception of such a commendable enterprise, but upon the success with which it has been initiated.

PROF. GEO. BRYCE, Winni. eg.: I like your project.

S. E. DAWSON, LL. D., Ottawa: It seems to me to be a most promising idea.

REV. DR. MACRAE, President Morrin College, Quebec: Keep up with the spirit and excellence characterizing the first number, it surely must command a large and appreciative support.

J. R. INGH, LL. D., Chief Supt. Education, N. B.: It is of great interest in connection with the study of Canadian history. I shall be glad to assist in any way possible to bring supplementary readings such as these within reach of the children in our schools.

Toronto Globe: The object of the publication is obviously to popularize knowledge and build up national sentiment.

Quebec Mercury: The cost of this interesting and useful adjunct to the study of Canadian History is forty cents a year—a price which puts the Leaflets within the reach of all purses.

Halifax Presbyterian Witness: What we would like to see is, schools ordering at wholesale prices copies of the Quarterly for all advanced pupils. Mr. Hay would thus become a pioneer in a genuine historical reform.
