

- (f) "Nuclear Material" means any source or special fissionable material as defined in Article XX of the Statute of the International Atomic Energy Agency. The term source material shall not be interpreted as applying to ore or ore residue. Any determination by the Board of Governors of the IAEA under Article XX of the Statute after the entry into force of this Agreement which adds to the materials considered to be source material or special fissionable material shall have effect under this Agreement only when the Parties to this Agreement have notified each other in writing that they accept such determination.
- (g) "Party" means in the case of Canada, the Government of Canada, and in the case of the Republic of the Philippines, the Government of the Republic of the Philippines. "Supplying Party" means the Government from whose jurisdiction the item in question is being transferred and "Recipient Party" means the Government in whose jurisdiction the item in question has been received. "Transferred between the Parties" means transferred between the jurisdictions of the Parties whether between the governments, their governmental enterprises or other persons under their respective jurisdictions.

ARTICLE X

1. The present Agreement shall be ratified and the exchange of the instruments of ratification shall be held at Ottawa as soon as possible.
2. The present Agreement shall enter into force upon the date of the exchange of the instruments of ratification.
3. The present Agreement shall remain in force so long as any item referred to in Annex A to the present Agreement is in existence or it is otherwise agreed between the Parties.
4. In all cases the provisions of Articles II to X of the present Agreement shall remain in force so long as any nuclear material, equipment, material or facility referred to in Annex A to the present Agreement is in existence or it is otherwise agreed between the Parties.
