

Ambassador Eki Syachrudin for their enthusiastic support of this endeavour. We are especially grateful to Foreign Affairs Canada which through its Asia Pacific Initiatives Program was able to provide generous support for bringing panelists from Indonesia and elsewhere in Canada, and to the Consulate General of the Republic of Indonesia in Vancouver for additional logistical and funding support. Special thanks go to the members of the organizing committee of the symposium, consisting of Hery Sariipudin of the Indonesian Consulate, Chris Dagg of SFU International, and Abidin Kusno of the UBC Centre for Southeast Asia Research. Thanks are also due to the UBC student assistants, Stephanie Lim, Trudy Loo, Shane Barter and Steven Shi, for their help in running the day's event and putting together this volume of proceedings. Special thanks are also due to Irman Lanti and the Habibie Center, Jakarta, for their assistance in producing the Indonesian language version of these proceedings.
