

ARTICLE 13

Settlement of Disputes

The Parties shall endeavor to resolve, through consultations and by mutual consent, any dispute regarding the interpretation or application of this Treaty.

ARTICLE 14

Entry into Force

1. Each Party shall notify the other Party in writing of the completion of internal procedures required for the entry into force of this Treaty. This Treaty shall enter into force on the first day of the first month following the date of the second notification of the completion of the procedures required for the entry into force.
2. This Treaty shall remain in force for a period of five years from the date of entry into force.
3. This Treaty shall renew automatically at the end of five years from the date of entry into force and at the end of every subsequent five-year period.
4. A Party wishing to terminate this Treaty shall give written notice of termination to the other Party at least six months before the end of the fifth year following its entry into force or, if this Treaty is renewed, at least six months before the end of any subsequent five-year period.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned, being duly authorized by their respective Governments, have signed this Treaty.

DONE at Amman on this 31st day of October 2016, in duplicate, in the English, French and Arabic languages, each version being equally authentic.
