

The following is a list of the headings which comprise the contents of this report:

Contents

PART I—BASIC ISSUES

- 1.01 Introduction
- 1.02 Scope of the Report
- 1.03 Degree of Interdependency
- 1.04 Pull Exerted by the United States
- 1.05 Maintenance of Canada's Political Independence
- 1.06 Canada No Satellite
- 1.07 Need for Positive Policies
- 1.08 Conclusions and Recommendations (Part I)

PART II—ECONOMIC DEPENDENCY

- 2.01 Imports and Exports
- 2.02 Capital requirements
- 2.03 Balance of Payment Arrangements
- 2.04 Defence Production Agreements—General
- 2.05 Historical Background
- 2.06 Provisions and Limitations of the Program
- 2.07 Cross Border Defence Trade
- 2.08 Assessment of the Production Sharing Program
- 2.09 Conclusions and Recommendations (Part II)

PART III—AMERICAN OWNERSHIP AND CONTROL OF CANADIAN RESOURCES AND INDUSTRY.

- 3.01 Extent of American Control
- 3.02 Industries With A High Degree of Foreign Ownership
- 3.03 Trend of Foreign Investment and Ownership in Canada
- 3.04 Methods Adopted in the Past to Protect Against Undue Economic Dependency
- 3.05 The "Key Sector" Approach
- 3.06 Financial Institutions
- 3.07 Transportation
- 3.08 Communications
- 3.09 Energy
- 3.10 The Multi-National Corporation
- 3.11 The Takeover of Canadian Companies
- 3.12 Gap in Canadian Capital Markets
- 3.13 Federal Grants to Foreign Owned Firms
- 3.14 Foreign Ownership of Patents, Trademarks and Industrial Designs
- 3.15 Economic Advantages and Disadvantages of American Ownership—General
- 3.16 Shift of Decision-Making to the United States
- 3.17 Extraterritoriality—General
- 3.18 Extraterritoriality—Control of Exports
- 3.19 Extraterritoriality—Anti-Trust Regulations
- 3.20 Extraterritoriality—Balance of Payments Regulations
- 3.21 Action Taken by Other Industrial Countries to Regulate Foreign Ownership—France
- 3.22 The United Kingdom
- 3.23 Japan
- 3.24 Action Taken by the Government
- 3.25 Regional and Constitutional Considerations