

by order in council P.C. 1965-1494 dated August 13, 1965, in conformity with section 10 of the incorporating act. Under the master plan approved on the same date, the gross expenditure was estimated to be $250.7 million and the gross revenue $189.1 million.

CONTRACTUAL OBLIGATIONS BY CROWN CORPORATIONS

Question No. 136—Mr. Caouette:

Were any regulations made under section 83 of the Financial Administration Act with respect to the conditions upon which a corporation acting for the crown may undertake contractual obligations and, if so, what are they?

Hon. E. J. Benson (Minister of National Revenue): 1. The government contracts regulations, P.C. 1964-1467, issued September 23, 1964 under the authority of sections 39 and 83 of the Financial Administration Act (R.S.C. 1952, c.116), declare in section 2(1) (d) (ii) that the regulations apply to the corporations named in schedule B to the Financial Administration Act and the National Capital Commission, National Battlefields Commission and the Northern Canada Power Commission.

AIR CANADA DC-9 SERVICE

Question No. 157—Mr. Forrestall:

1. What cities in Canada are to be included in the introduction of DC-9 aircraft to Air Canada domestic service routes?
2. What dates are now anticipated for such introductions?
3. What will be the frequency of such service between Halifax and Montreal?

Mr. J. A. Byrne (Parliamentary Secretary to Minister of Transport): The management of Air Canada advises as follows:

1. The following cities in Canada are included in Air Canada's plans for DC-9 aircraft operation in the first half of 1966: Vancouver, Edmonton, Calgary, Winnipeg, Toronto, Ottawa, Montreal. Other points of call are likely to be added in subsequent years as additional aircraft become available.
2. Vancouver, Winnipeg, Montreal—April 24; Toronto—June 1; Edmonton, Calgary, Ottawa—July 1.
3. There has been no decision yet as to flights to Halifax.

CANADIAN DELEGATES TO UN SESSION

Question No. 171—Mr. McCleave:

What were the names of the Canadian delegates and observers to the most recent session of the United Nations, and on what date was each appointed?

Hon. Paul Martin (Secretary of State for External Affairs): Canadian delegates to the twentieth session of the general assembly of the United Nations (21 September-21 December 1965) were appointed by the government on August 25. Their names are the following: Hon. Paul Martin, Mr. Paul Tremblay, Dr. Stanley Haidasz, Mrs. Margaret Konantz, Professor R. St. John MacDonald, Lieut.-Gen. E. L. M. Burns, Mr. W. H. Wershof, Mr. Paul Beaulieu, Miss Margaret Meagher, Mr. Stuart Hemsley.

Questions

Following past practice, parliamentary observers were nominated by parliamentary party leaders. During the first half of June the Secretary of State for External Affairs asked the party leaders in the Senate and in the House to provide him with names of observers for the places allocated to each party. The names of observers were submitted by the party leaders during the summer and fall. Of those names submitted the following attended as observers during the session: Observers from the Senate: Hon. Rhéal Belisle, Hon. J. J. Kinley, Hon. Hartland de M. Molson. Observers from the House of Commons: Hon. J. W. Monteith, Mr. Yves Forest, Mr. Walter F. Foy, Mr. Gilles Grégoire, Mr. Raynald Guay, Mr. Milton L. Klein, Mr. Herman Laverdière, Mr. Carl Legault, Mr. H. Pit Lessard, Mr. Marcel Lessard, Mr. Nicholas Mandziuk, Mr. Wallace B. Nesbitt, Mr. Gerald A. Regan, Mr. S. Perry Ryan, Mr. Max Saltzman, Mr. James R. Tucker, Mr. Ian Watson.

Mr. Willson Woodside, national director of the United Nations Association in Canada, was appointed by the government as non-governmental observer on September 30.

INDIAN RESIDENTIAL SCHOOLS

Question No. 177—Mr. Barnett:

1. What, listed by name, location, denominational or other equivalent designation, are the Indian residential schools in each of the provinces and territories of Canada?
2. Which of these schools are providing only residential services, and which are also providing classroom instruction?
3. Is the Canada Labour (Standards) Code applicable to any or all of these schools and, if not to all, to which is it applicable?
4. Are the salaries or wages currently being paid for any of the positions in any of these schools less than the equivalent of $1.25 per hour and, if so, what positions in which schools are paid at less than this rate, and in what amount per hour, day, week or month?

Hon. Arthur Laing (Minister of Northern Affairs and National Resources): 1. See following table.