

Request for Housing Statement

there is no room for complacency on this question. Housing policies in any nation are the subject of criticism, and quite rightly so, because everyone is entitled to increasing standards of fine housing.

In Canada we must strive for higher standards. But, a look at what has been done so far from 1968 up until now would indicate that all the signs are there and that, once having assessed the entirety of the problem, the minister has approached the problem initially here the urgency is greatest. He is gradually moving into the areas of lesser urgency, keeping in mind the total picture. Therefore, members on this side of the House are convinced that the minister is doing well and we have the utmost confidence in him.

Mr. Knowles (Winnipeg North Centre): Five o'clock.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Bécharde): Order, please. It being five o'clock, it is my duty to inform the House that pursuant to Section 11 of Standing Order 58, the proceedings on the motion before the House are deemed to have expired.

This House stands adjourned until Monday, June 15, 1970 at two o'clock p.m.

At five o'clock the House adjourned, without question put, pursuant to standing order.
